Still time to enroll at Baker College for new fall semester

CADILLAC, Mich. – There's still time to enroll at Baker College for 2017 fall semester, but prospective students need to act quickly.

On-ground and online classes begin Monday, Aug. 28, about a month earlier than in previous years. The college has transitioned from a quarter system to semesters.

Baker College has day and evening classes for programs in the areas of applied technology, business, education, engineering, health science, information technology and social science.

Financial assistance is available to students, including scholarships, grants, low-interest loans and work-study programs. For more information contact Cheri Sprik in the admissions office at 231.876.3119 or cheri.sprik@baker.edu, or visit www.baker.edu.

The largest private college in Michigan, Baker College is a not-for-profit higher education institution accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. Founded in 1911, Baker College grants doctoral, master's, bachelor's and associate degrees, as well as certificates in diverse academic fields including applied technology, business, education, engineering, health science, information technology and social science. Baker College has on-ground campuses throughout Michigan and offers online programs that can be completed 100 percent online without ever visiting a campus. In 2016, the Online Learning Consortium recognized Baker College Online with the OLC Quality Scorecard Exemplary Endorsement, the highest ranking for online higher education programs. For
