Sufi practice supports embodying the universal spiritual ideals of Love, Harmony, and Beauty, grounded in experience. Over centuries, Sufis have developed "spiritual technology" cultivating balanced spiritual awakening in the context of everyday life. Both Pir Shabda and Tamam serve humanity, committed to "putting their hearts into" every moment.

♥ PIR SHABDA KAHN serves as Sufi Ruhaniat Int'l spiritual director, responsible for carrying forward the lineage of Sufi Murshid Samuel Lewis and his teacher, Pir-o-Murshid Inayat Khan. In this role, he also holds primary responsibility for continuity of the Dances of Universal Peace spiritual transmission. Shabda brings warmth, humor, and clarity to these roles. He is also a devoted, skilled vocalist and teacher in India's classical music tradition.

Author, poet and spoken word performer ♥ TAMAM KAHN studied Classical Arabic and earned an MA in Eastern Art History from San Francisco State University. World travel and historical research catalyzed her interest in Prophet Muhammad's wives. Tamam's first book, Untold, A History of the Wives of Prophet Muhammad won a 2011 Int'l Book Award. This visit celebrates her newest book, Fatima's Touch: Poems & Stories of the Prophet's Daughter.
