

Rev'd Up

Renewing connections with old friends, Making new ones

Join us for Rev'd Up, a gathering of retired Presbyterian clergy, their guests and others who are a part of our retired Presbyterian community.

This event will be held Tuesday, April 17, at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Minneapolis, from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Coffee will be available. Registration begins at 10:30.

Rev'd Up will include a worship service at 11, followed by a fabulous luncheon, with an opportunity for conversation, renewing old connections and making new ones. Following worship, a personal tour of the beautiful new Westminster Church expansion will be led by senior pastor Tim Hart-Andersen.

After lunch, join us for: "I'm Retired. Now What !??!" Whether we retired two weeks ago or 20 years ago, we're still faced with navigating the sometimes-tricky world of being part of a congregation and finding a place to be useful in the presbytery, if and when we're ready to jump back in. This promises to be a fascinating and meaningful time to discuss what it is for each of us to be "retired" yet to continue to be engaged in the life of the church and our continued vocation as ministers. The discussion will be facilitated by former interim presbytery executive Jim Brasel. This is your chance to share your experiences of retirement with one another.

How do (my spouse) and I engage with a congregation?

Where do I fit in the life of the presbytery?

We're hoping this will be the start of an ongoing connection, so we'll take a few minutes at the end to share some ideas and solicit others for future possibilities, including ongoing gatherings, and other opportunities.
