

Do you know about the Lexington Interfaith Garden? All are welcome to join us

We grow fresh produce that is donated to the Lexington Food Pantry.

The Garden is supported by local faith communities including Protestant, Jewish, Catholic, and Islamic congregations, along with many community friends.

Over 11,500 pounds of fresh produce have been delivered to the Lexington Food Pantry.

No experience needed!
Help needed Tues afternoons and Sat mornings.
Bring your kids or a friend.
(LHS community service hours available.)

Where: At private garden across from the Lexington Green
When: Tues afternoons and Sat mornings April thru October

For more info or to sign up, go to our website www.interfaithgarden.org

