

Career Training for Today's Jobs!

Are you ready to experience the THRILL of impacting a student's career by taking your own to the next level?

Porter and Chester Institute, a leading trade school in Connecticut and Massachusetts, adheres to one basic vision: to educate and train our students to the level that will make them competent employees.

With 9 campus locations throughout Connecticut and Massachusetts, we offer training in such trades as automotive technology, HVAC-R, CAD, Electrician, as well as Medical Assisting, Dental Assisting, Administrative Health Specialist, Practical Nursing and Computer & Technology.

Our staff, including Admissions, Financial Aid and other administrative professionals through to our highly qualified staff of Instructors is focused on making the students' experience a fulfilling and enriching one, both professionally and personally.

Type: Full Time at Rocky Hill, CT campus

Hours available:

Monday - Thursday 1p-10p (Mon and Thurs 5p-10p = classroom instruction; Tues and Wed 5p-10p = clinical, Mon – Thurs 1p-5p evening program oversite and class preparation)

Practical Nursing Instructors are responsible for providing quality instruction to students through well prepared classes, relevant assignments, fair assessment of learning, clear documentation of student progress, and support of the academic success for all students.

Our Faculty Members...

- Have high energy level and ability to engage students
- Have excellent presentation skills
- Learn our practice and strategies quickly
- Receive and respond to ongoing training, development, and feedback
- Mentor and help guide students of all levels achieve their best

Position Requirements:

- Current valid RN license in the State of Connecticut
- Minimum 3 years of recent clinical experience
- Minimum Bachelor's Degree in Nursing and willing to pursue Master's Degree
- Ability to use common software programs (MS Word/Excel/Outlook etc.)
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Great interpersonal skills

PCI offers a full array of benefits including a 401k plan and paid time off. For more information about employment opportunities at Porter and Chester Institute, please contact our Recruiter at Recruitment@porterchester.com.

To view job openings: <https://www.porterchester.com/about-pci/careers/>