

6th Annual HBCU Climate Change Conference

September 20 - 23, 2018
New Orleans, LA

Call for Abstracts

About the Conference

The Deep South Center for Environmental Justice, Inc. in collaboration with Texas Southern University will host the 6th Annual HBCU Climate Change Conference, September 20-23, 2018 in New Orleans, Louisiana. The purpose of the conference is to bring together HBCU faculty and students, researchers, climate professionals and environmental justice and coastal community residents impacted by toxic facilities and severe weather events to bridge the gap between theory and the experiential realities of climate change.

Conference Registration

The conference general registration cost is $100 and $50 for students. A limited number of student travel scholarships are available. Travel scholarships include lodging and transportation (per diem is not included).

Call for Abstracts

Student abstracts are now being accepted for oral and poster presentations. Abstracts will be accepted via the Abstract Online Form only (see website for more details).

For more information:

www.dscej.org/events

DEADLINE: All abstracts must be submitted via the online form no later than April 30, 2018.