

Spring 2019 MEF Presenter Bios

Dr. Greg Carey is Professor of New Testament at Lancaster Theological Seminary. An active layperson in the United Church of Christ, Greg is the author of Apocalyptic Literature in the New Testament, Luke: All Flesh Shall See God's Salvation, and Sinners: Jesus and His Earliest Followers, among other books.

Rev. Jes Kast is the new Pastor to Faith UCC in State College. Recently she moved from New York City where she served West End Collegiate Church for eight years. In her tenure at West End she revitalized a soup kitchen ministry into a worshiping community that centers the dignity of body and souls. Social media is a vibrant ministry for her and she invites you to join the soulful conversations on her twitter @JesKast or her Instagram at @revjeskast. She and her wife find a particular joy in finding delicious new coffee roasters and believe a good cup of coffee brings people together!

Rev. Megan Malick is a clergy partner at Wisdom's Table United Church of Christ in Lancaster, PA. Currently, she offers pre- and post-marital counseling to couples who are spiritual but not religious. She is also a part-time marriage and family therapist at TW Ponessa & Associates Counseling Services. One of Megan's passions is helping individuals, couples, families, and communities transform stumbling blocks into stepping stones.

Rev. Dr. Carolyne M. Call is the Executive Director of Development and Communication in Lancaster Theological Seminary's Office of Advancement. Call joined Lancaster Seminary in 2016 from the Indiana-Kentucky Conference of the United Church of Christ where she has served as an associate conference minister since 2012. Call holds three degrees from Cornell University: B.S. in Rural Sociology (1986), M.S. in Development Sociology (2000), and Ph.D. in Education (2004). She received a Master of Divinity with a concentration in Systematic Theology from Colgate-Rochester Divinity School in 1990 and was ordained in the United Church of Christ in 1994.
