

Thanks to the support of so many of you, 5777 was a great year for CJPAC and the Jewish and pro-Israel community.

As we approach Rosh Hashanah and think about this time next year, ask yourself: Have I done everything I can for our democracy?

There is so much we can all be doing and although the next federal election is still a couple of years away, there are many avenues for political engagement. CJPAC is here to help you understand and navigate the Canadian political process during and between elections. Let us know where your interests lie and we'd be happy to connect you! Please visit our website or email outreach@cjpac.ca for more information.

Wishing you and yours a happy and healthy new year,

Sherry Firestone
