Annual

BAGEL LOOP WALK / RUN / ROLL

Sunday August 12, 2018 - Victoria Park
Registration @ 10:00AM

"On Your Feet or On Your Seat"

Thursday, October 18

Back to the Country Farm Tour and Lunch at Prairie Gardens.

We will learn about the colourful history of the farm,
from Pioneer days.

After that we will enjoy a delicious home-made lunch of vegetarian lasagna, seasonal salad,
and all the trimmings, followed by strawberry shortcake.
Then you can choose to have a train ride, see the petting zoo or get lost in the Mega Corn Maze!

We plan to leave the Centre at 9.30a.m. and arrive back at approx 3.30p.m.

What a fantastic day awaits us!

$45 for members and $55 for non-members.

Please sign up before September 7 with payment.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

President: Lewis Wasel, Past President: Mark Salkie, Treasurer: Elaine Salkie, Secretary: Danny Assh, Membership Chair: Miriam Rabinovitch, Program Chair: Shirley Grossman, Transportation Chair: Hans Pilz, Volunteer Coordinator: Louise Percheson-Kagan Directors: Laurie Mozeson, Dmitry Alman.

Presidential Appointee: Leslie Morgenstern Honorary Members: Hanna Pollack Honorary Advisor: Larry Derkach
Executive Director: Svetlana Pavlenko Office Manager: Erika Damjanovic Chef: Bozena Szopiak

We are excited about our first Bagel Loop: Walk/Run/Roll on Sunday, August 12. We hope that it will be well attended by our members together with their families and friends and that it will be successful in both friendraising and fundraising.

I enjoy reading the previous edition of Schmooze and News to reminisce about the programs I attended and to read about those that I was not able to attend. Melanie Gall and Eden Ballantyne entertained us with their performance of songs from Bizet's Carmen. Bonnie Austen guided us on a travelogue of South Africa. Dr. Keith Aronyk educated us about Gamma Knife Technology. Marcia Bercov spoke about her volunteer experiences in Israel, Naomi and Vic Amato treated us to some Sephardic cuisine, and Rabbi Kunin took us to Indonesia to discover the Lost Tribe. I thank the JAHSENA board and staff for bringing the successful Challah Baking event to the Centre. It is always wonderful to collaborate with other Jewish organizations!

Although I was not able to attend the Memories of Edmonton panel, I heard that Naomi Amato, Beryl Nahornick, Mitch Klimove, Mel Wyne and Miriam Rabinovitch did a fabulous job of adding their personal touch to the history of Edmonton.

It was our great pleasure and honour to host the four week series Rediscover Jane Austen with Professor Emeritus Robert Merrett. All participants enjoyed it tremendously and look forward to his new course in the Fall. Don't forget to sign up for our popular Learning in Retirement Series now! See the brochure for details in this newsletter.

We look forward to welcoming you at the Centre for the new exciting programs! Ilonka Wormsbecker will share her life story - Growing Up In Holland on August 2. Abe Silverman will share his story about Growing Up In Romania on August 9. Vic Romanyshyn will open up for us the magical world of butterflies on August 16. Our membership lunch and birthday celebration will be held on August 30.

The Centre will close on September 9 for the Jewish High Holiday period and will reopen on Tuesday, October 9. I extend best wishes to all of our members and their families to be inscribed for a year of peace and good health.

L' Shana Tovah to all of you!

OPERA SEASON

La Traviata

JUBILEE AUDITORIUM

SUNG IN ITALIAN WITH PROJECTED ENGLISH TRANSLATION

Tuesday, October 23 at 7:30p.m.

Edmonton Opera's new production of La Traviata combines spectacle, passion, drama, and thrilling music to tell the story of Violetta, a famous Parisian courtesan who is consumed both by love and a life-threatening illness.

Don't miss the opera that inspired the blockbuster film Moulin Rouge!

RSVP with payment by September 7. Ticket: $30 per person.

Lunch & Learn

GROWING UP IN HOLLAND 1938 – 1957

Thursday, August 2 at 12p.m.

Ilonka Wormsbecker was born in Hoogezand, Holland. She was the oldest of five children. Her father, Vilmos Halpern, was an international soccer coach.

He was born to a Jewish Orthodox family in Budapest. His father was a cantor at the local synagogue.

Come and learn about the fascinating history of one stateless family, who finally found their home in Edmonton, in 1957.

ALL ABOUT BUTTERFLIES

Thursday, August 16 at 12p.m.

Educator and member of the Lepidopterists' Guild, Vic Romanyshyn, will tell us everything we ever wanted to know about butterflies! He will have a short presentation and bring display cases of the many varieties of butterflies found around the world.

HISTORY OF COFFEE WITH ADE

Tuesday, August 21 at 12 p.m.

How did coffee become so important in our lives? Is the blonde roast stronger than the dark roast?

Is there a correct way to drink your coffee?

How can you keep your coffee beans fresh?

Talk and sampling of kosher coffee with Ade, a High Street Starbucks manager.

GROWING UP IN ROMANIA

Thursday, August 9 at 12p.m.

Abe Silverman was born in a city in North East of Romania under Nazi occupation in 1942. He wore a yellow star for the first 2 years of his life. After escaping Romania in 1947, his father, mother and infant brother spent 2 years in a Displaced Persons Camp in Vienna waiting for passage to Israel.

As fate would have it they instead found themselves in Canada arriving in January 1949.

CAREER IN BROADCASTING

Tuesday, August 14 at 12p.m.

Come and hear one of Edmonton's favourite radio personalities – Rob Christie, who will talk about his career in broadcasting!

ROSH HASHANAH

Tuesday, September 4 at 12 p.m.

Rabbi Mendy will tell us about the significance of the Jewish New Year holy days.

"KEEPING SCORE" with D.T. BAKER

Starting with the Roots of Soundtrack - program and incidental music, then moving on to never silent "Silent" movies (including Chaplin's scores), D.T. Baker will take us into the era when composing for films begins and then moves on to the Jazz Age. From there he'll conduct us to music for Sci-Fi, Westerns, War, and Rock and Roll, bringing us up to today's orchestral film scores from contemporary composers such as the great, hummable John Williams.

NAVIGATING COMPROMISE IN XXI CENTURY BIOETHICS with GARY GOLDSAND

In recent decades, progress in science and the growth of health care have created many unprecedented ethical challenges. We wonder if we will ever reach some kind of public consensus around controversial issues. In this course we will review the religious and cultural foundations of our ethical sensibilities, and how these might inform discussions around health care, death, medically-assisted dying, genetic testing, and other bioethical challenges.

THE ART OF DECEPTION: FORGERIES AND THIEVERY IN THE ART WORLD with KATHLEEN SILVERMAN

Forgers have swindled art sellers and buyers for centuries. Explore the lucrative world of forgery, learn about some of the most famous forgers and fakes, and investigate techniques used to uncover the truth. But forgery is not the only high profile art crime—enjoy fascinating stories of both legendary and low-key art thefts and some of the masterminds behind them.

OPERA ANYONE? with MORRIS MADURO

Opera lovers are a passionate bunch. Opera being the most intense and comprehensive of the arts, this should not be surprising; but why such passion? This series of listening sessions and talks will show you why opera is so beloved - even to newcomers - by introducing you to the greatest operas and scenes, the greatest composers and the greatest singers, and perhaps even some juicy back-stage stories!

D.T. BAKER

2018 marks 40 years in the music profession for D.T.Baker, much of that spent sharing his passion, insight, and knowledge with the public. He has been a broadcaster, music writer, lecturer, and author and has worked in many aspects of the music business: radio, print media, recording labels, and music-making organizations. Presently Musicologist & Interpreter for the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra & the Winspear Centre, Mr. Baker's hobbies include photography, hockey, and performing in a rock band.

GARY GOLDSAND

Gary Goldsand is an assistant clinical professor with the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry at the University of Alberta, and a clinical ethicist. He is currently the Director of the U of A's John Dossett Health Ethics Centre, and offers courses in ethics, communications, and professionalism to medical trainees and undergraduates. He brings a background in religious and cultural studies to his instruction, and aims to facilitate discussion and debate about a range of challenges in health ethics.

KATHLEEN SILVERMAN

Kathleen Silverman holds a B. Ed with Distinction from the University of Alberta and a certificate in Arts and Cultural Management from MacEwan University. She has experience working with students of all ages in diverse environments, including as an elementary school teacher, an instructor in the Learning in Retirement Lecture Series, and as an Educator and Museum School Coordinator at the Art Gallery of Alberta. Combining her love of teaching with her passion for the arts, Kathleen enjoys investigating the social context of artists and how their narratives influence their artwork.

MORRIS MADURO

Morris Maduro was born and received his early education in the Republic of Panama. His father was the choir director and principal soloist at the Synagogue in Panama, and Morris succeeded him for five years before emigrating to Canada in 1974. Morris received his MA and PhD degrees (in international law) from the University of Alberta. Following a career in government and academia, he is now retired. Morris' lifelong avocation has been that of classical music, especially opera and voice production, and he has taught opera appreciation at the Universities of Alberta and Regina. In 1996, Morris wrote a book on opera appreciation that was used as a course guide which he is now revising.
