Adult Sunday School Class Series: The Parables of Jesus

All adults are welcome and encouraged to attend any or all of the classes. The only preparation would be to read the given parable for the week and come to class ready to share and listen to what others have to say and let the Holy Spirit guide us in our understanding of what we need to learn from each of them. Becky Supercinski, Susan Kuhlman and Mary Lynn Dawes have agreed to share in the responsibility of facilitating the discussion. Here is the 12-week schedule:

Dec. 4 th	The Midnight Caller (Luke 11:5-8)
Dec. 11 th	The Unjust Judge (Luke 18:1-8)
Dec. 18 th	The Pharisee and the Tax Collector (Luke 18:9-14)
Dec. 25 th	NO CLASS
Jan. 1 st or 8 th	The Vineyard Laborers (Matt. 20:1-16)

Gilmont Women's Retreat February 3-5, 2017 Speaker Melinda Veatch

"Is That You, Lord?"

In the midst of the speed of technology, the demands of tasks, and our fears about our daily and future security, we easily lose connection with the reality of God's presence with us in our daily lives. We become blinded to the ways God is constantly revealing himself to us and deaf to the language of the heart in which our Creator speaks to us in each moment, and invites us to use as we speak to each other. As we seek to see and hear the Spirit individually and together, we open ourselves to the ways God is calling us to be in relationship with him and with each other, ways that allow us to participate in his transformative work in the world.
