Faith as the “bread” or key to eternal life through belief in God and His Son, Jesus, is the theme of this Summertime edition of Faith Magazine. Its arrival in your mailbox or as a download on your computer heralds Jesus’ lesson for the crowds to whom He ministered.

He urged them to focus on spiritual sustenance instead of the physical pieces of bread and fish with which he had fed thousands of people earlier.

“I am the bread of life: he that cometh to Me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst . . .” Jesus instructed.

In that way He taught that God is the source of grace, light and love in our lives. And, best of all the Lord is accessible to us through the simple power of prayer.

On Page 12 of this FAITH you’ll also read about Jesus’ lesson of the unique power of forgiveness. By forgiving His tormentors, The Son of God taught us how to live and work in accordance with God’s teaching. Thus, if we forgive those who might have treated us badly, we are changing OUR thoughts and attitudes from the negative feelings of anger and resentment, to the positive forces of love and forgiveness.

Forgiving frees us to get in the habit of seeing the good in others, instead of darkening our hearts with suspicion. The love and light of Jesus in your heart can clear away sadness of spirit in all who stand before it!

And of course, this wouldn’t be Faith Magazine without stories of how our Members got through hard times of their own by relying on prayer. On Page 6, Lanie E. from Iowa talks about a frightening tornado that popped up and damaged their home as they hid in the basement. “Loud tornado alerts started going off as my girls and I rushed into the basement. We huddled together under a heavy table and prayed as I heard the wind pick up and begin to roar . . . yes, just as if a train were coming through my front room! It lasted for about 10 minutes, but seemed like an eternity. Finally, when things got quiet again, we crept up the stairs from the basement to find that our beautiful home had been badly damaged. Furniture was strewn around and part of the roof was missing.”

Still, Lanie was thrilled that she and her girls survived without injury.

“I realized then that the Lord was looking out for me and my girls as we sat huddled in that basement. I thank God for His mercy. He saved our lives!”

Several Members also wrote how Fellowship has benefitted their lives.

Nerissa M. of Trinidad said on Page 14, “You have touched my life in a special way, Fellowship, and it is a miracle that I am still alive. God has raised me from my sick bed and I have started to move around and walk again.”

We hope you enjoy this Faith Magazine, too, Dear Friend. Please write and let us know how you’re doing!

Faith Magazine, and some other things you receive from Fellowship, are not forwardable mail! So if you move, and don't send your new address directly to us, you'll miss out on some Fellowship mail. You'll get your personal letters, but not your other important mail.

Also, when you send us your new address, please use an envelope we provide for you in every package that has your old address already printed on it. We need to have your old address to make sure your mail comes to the new address quickly and accurately. We really feel bad when something you've asked for arrives late or gets lost because of an old address. Help us make sure that doesn't happen to you!

If you are writing to Fellowship for the first time, please let us know if you are not already a Member. This will also help us give you a speedy response. Following these few important tips will ensure that we stay in close contact!

Jesus Teaches Us To Believe In ‘The Bread Of Life’ He Provides!

The theme of this Faith Magazine refers to a lesson Jesus taught after He had multiplied several loaves of bread and two fishes to feed 5,000 people. As the Bible says in John: Chapter 6, many people sought out Jesus after witnessing His feeding of thousands.

However, He was concerned they hadn’t learned the lesson He was trying to teach. So, Jesus used this new opportunity to talk about the Word of God, and how faith could sustain them just like the bread He had multiplied and shared earlier.

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, ye seek Me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled,” said Jesus.

“Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for Him hath God the Father sealed.”

Then, the people responded to Jesus, asking what they should do to carry on the work of God. They also asked Him for a sign proving He was the Son of God.

Jesus answered, “Verily, verily, I say unto you . . . My Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

“For the bread of God is He which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the World . . .

“I am the bread of life: he that cometh to Me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst . . .

“All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me; and him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out.

“For I came down from Heaven, not to do Mine own will, but the will of Him that sent Me.

“And this is the will of Him that sent Me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

So, Dear Member, the Bread of Life nourishes all of us who believe in God the Father, and His Son, Jesus. We can be sure we are living and doing as the Lord wants us too, when we partake in the Bread of Life Jesus spoke about long ago.
“I Realized Then That The Lord Was Looking Out For Me!”

My Fellowship Friends, I’ve read all those inspiring stories in Faith Magazine about our Fellow Members overcoming obstacles in their lives. But I never expected to be writing one of my own! Yet, that’s where I find myself today, and with God’s grace I came out OK.

I live in the Midwest, and it’s not unusual for us to get severe weather. A few years ago, summer had arrived and I was looking forward to a good year. I had left an abusive relationship of many years and had gotten back on my feet with a good job and a nice place to stay. My two daughters had settled in well at their school, too. Life was good!

I remember it was a bright summer day, hotter than usual. When I was driving to pick up my children from soccer practice I noticed how dark the sky was in the distance. I told my daughters to hurry up because we wanted to get home before the storm hit the area. When we reached our house I breathed a little sign of relief, thinking we would be safe inside our sturdy home.

But, my confidence turned out to be misplaced. When I turned on my TV again to see where the storms were, I saw we were under a tornado warning! It seems the dark clouds had spawned a big funnel cloud that was headed our way!

Loud tornado alerts started going off as my girls and I rushed into the basement. We huddled together under a heavy table and prayed as I heard the wind pick up and begin to roar . . . yes, just as if a train were coming through my front room! It lasted for about 10 minutes, but seemed like an eternity. Finally, when things got quiet again, we crept up the stairs from the basement to find that our beautiful home had been badly damaged. Furniture was strewn around and part of the roof was missing.

My daughters and I cried, as much out of relief that we were spared, as for what we had lost. Our church was wonderful. Its members stepped in to provide us a place to stay until our home could be repaired. I realized then that the Lord was looking out for me and my girls as we sat huddled in that basement. I thank God for His mercy. He saved our lives!

Strength For The Day
Little Prayers For Life’s Everyday Situations

A Prayer For My Church
My church is a second home for me, O Lord, and I count its congregation as my family. We help each other through good times and bad. Please keep my fellow church members safe and help them prosper; Father, for they are good people. Hear our voices as we sing Your praises each time we come together in our church. — Amen

The Love Of My Spouse
O Lord, long ago You led me to my soulmate, a spouse who promised to cherish and love me forever. We are now celebrating our wedding anniversary of many years and it has been a wonderful life together. Thank You for leading me to my true love, and I pray You will continue to bless us for the rest of our years together:
— Amen

Preserve My Independence
Dear Loving Lord, I come to You with a special prayer this day, to preserve my independence as I grow older! I see friends and loved ones become depressed when they can no longer drive or come and go as they wish, and it makes me sad. I fear losing that freedom myself, and pray You will protect my faculties so I can remain independent!
— Amen

Strength To Cope
Heavenly Father, there are so many sources of stress in my life right now, I don’t know what to do. I feel that only You will be able to fix my problems, so I turn to You now in prayer. Please grant me strength to sort out these challenges so I may sleep soundly again. Free me of this confusion and ease my worries. I know You can help me!
— Amen

Independence Day
This wonderful country of ours faces challenges from around the World, O Lord. Yet, it is resilient enough to change its leaders in a peaceful manner, governed by the rule of law. This July 4, I pray You will continue to bless our nation, Father, and lead us to do what is right and just in all things. God bless our United States!
— Amen

Celebrating Labor Day
This year, Labor Day falls on September 4, a day that gives all of us a chance to celebrate everyone who works in the millions of jobs that keep our country going. Bless these good people with enough to eat and a secure place to sleep, Dear Lord. Let them enjoy good health and keep them safe on the job, free from injury.
— Amen

Here are the Three Daily Prayers prepared for our Fellowship Friends to say in July. We encourage you to say these special Prayers each day at the appointed times. You will be uniting with others everywhere to seek God’s blessings!

“His Ears are open unto their prayers!” I Peter 3:12

8:00 A.M. Prayer for Guidance

I feel so hopeful when I greet each new day with a Prayer to You, O Lord. Wherever I go today I know You will be with me, leading and giving me Your strength and love. I pray You will bless me and all of my Friends in Fellowship with Your Guidance in the hours ahead. We will follow You, Lord, trying our best to make this a day of doing good deeds and speaking kind words to others!

— Amen

12:00 Noon Prayer for Prosperity

Heavenly Father, I know in my heart that You are the source of all that is good and worthwhile. And at this noontime hour I am praying with my Fellowship Friends as we seek Your blessing of Prosperity, one for another. Please help us to meet our needs and be able to live without the constant strain of money worries. Through Your love, may the joy of Prosperity come to each of us in Fellowship. Thank You, Lord! — Amen

9:00 P.M. Prayer for Health and Healing

Once again, Dear Lord, I turn to You as my wonderful source of comfort. And I feel so close to You, so close that I know You are hearing each word I say. Please let me also know, Lord, that You will bring blessings of Health and Healing this night. My Fellowship Friends are praying with me now. Shelter us with Your Hand and let us rest free of any suffering or pain!

— Amen
How You Can Help Us!

Fellowship’s Special Help Department assists hundreds of Member each year with prayers asking the Lord for help. Well, Dear Friend, did you know there’s a way you can help us, too!

Yes, when you help us bring new people into Fellowship, it makes us stronger and expands the good we can do! What’s the best way to do that? Well, it depends on what you want to do. Sharing Faith Magazine with friends is one way to introduce folks to our good work. You might also talk to them about what Fellowship has meant to you over the years, too!

“Blessings And Love”

I enjoy reading Faith Magazine. It’s good to know I have a group of Friends in my time of need. I’d like to thank all the Members of Fellowship. Thank you for your blessings and love. The Daily Prayers help to keep my mind off my health problems, and Faith Magazine lets me know Jesus loves me!

Casper C., Georgia

“Found You Again”

In 1987 my mother was a faithful Member of Life-Study Fellowship. That’s when I started reading and saying your prayers. Somehow, I lost contact with Fellowship, and then when I went to the Post Office there was a copy of Faith Magazine! I’m so happy to have found you again!

Delphine R., Pennsylvania

Fellowship’s Legacy Depends on You! Here’s How You Can Help!

Some Members have inquired about how they might make a bequest to Life-Study Fellowship. Through the years, many Members have chosen to remember our Fellowship in this special way and we are truly grateful. Some Members have included Fellowship in their wills, while others have named Life-Study Fellowship in their life insurance policies.

If you are interested in making arrangements through your will, we suggest you talk with an attorney who can explain the tax advantages and ways to go about making such a bequest.

Please remember that it is to everybody’s advantage to have a will. This doesn’t apply just to the very wealthy. The truth is everyone who owns any property needs a will to direct who should benefit.

Otherwise, some or all of your property will be split up according to state law, which may leave your property in ways you did not want or intend.

Therefore, whether or not you include a bequest to Life-Study Fellowship, we encourage you to seek the services of an attorney to have a will drawn up if you have not already done so.
My Dear Fellow Members, I am feeling somewhat better. I have been reading Faith Magazine all month and it has been so wonderful for me.

I am always in touch with God and have felt His Presence more in this year than ever before. It is because I am able to understand how to better pray for Guidance. The Lord is showing me love more, and plainer than ever before, too.

I think the difference is due to the personal prayers that you mailed to me, and to my reading of your Faith Magazine. I do appreciate my Fellow Members so much and I thank them for praying with and for me.

I also feel so much better, but I pray for more strength in my body and mind. I had a terrible cold and cough, but I feel certain God, the love of my Fellowship Friends and my own prayers helped pull me through. I am almost completely healed now.

I thank God all the time, and my Fellow Members. I will always be in touch with Fellowship, and will try to send whatever I can to help you continue to mail Faith Magazine out to everyone in Fellowship . . . as well as anyone else who is interested in its positive message.

I always tell my friends about FAITH. Some of them already know how wonderful it is, and I try to introduce it to those who don’t know.

I always take a close look at the pictures in FAITH. You take or make the nicest pictures! They take away all sad feelings, and in fact, everything I see and read in Faith Magazine is wonderful.

We have to love one another and care for each other, and I truly am doing that. All my love goes out to you and the wonderful work you are doing! I believe God is very pleased with you and I thank you so much for what you have done for me, through my prayers.

Let us keep doing what we can for ourselves and thanking God. Love to you all!

Mrs. O. B., Florida
Dear Friends, almost everyone has experienced what it’s like to be the victim of ugly gossip or tall tales at one time or another . . . whether in school, the workplace or other places. It makes you mad, doesn’t it, when people say mean things about you or someone you care about! One of our Members who wrote to us about this was furious over the comments someone made to her, calling them “unforgiveable!”

It’s understandable how that Member felt, because a situation like this is always upsetting. Still, let’s step back a moment and remember how Jesus handled just that kind of problem.

For example, He knew Judas would betray Him long before the actual event occurred. Yet, Jesus didn’t cast out Judas from the group of Disciples. Yes, even as Jesus was being crucified, the Bible passage of Luke 23:34 tells us that He said, “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.”

With the Lord setting such an example, shouldn’t we do the same, Dear Member?

So, if you hear someone making unkind comments about you or someone you know, it’s fine to correct them. But instead of getting mad and declaring that person to be no good, or even saying bad things about them, think about the example Jesus set for us.

We like to think of it as Fellowship’s Rule of Forgiveness, too. Here’s how it works . . . When you show love and forgiveness to someone who has wronged you, even if it doesn’t heal the person who committed that deed, you will find it has healed you! By forgiving His tormentors, Jesus taught us how to live and work in accordance with God’s teachings by forgiving those who treat us badly. In doing so, we are changing OUR thoughts and attitudes from the negative feelings of anger and resentment, to the positive forces of love and forgiveness.

We will get in the habit of seeing the good in others, instead of darkening our hearts with suspicion. The love and light of Jesus in your heart will clear away darkness of spirit in all who stand before it!
Dear Friend, welcome to Fellowship’s “food page” that we call Daily Bread! Here, you’ll find delicious recipes from your Fellow Members who know how to turn out a tasty meal. We publish these delightful dishes in each issue of Faith Magazine, so we hope you will send us one of your signature recipes, too!

FIVE HOUR STEW
A Member in Florida contributed this tasty entree that could be a meal itself.

Ingredients: 2 pounds beef stew meat, cubed . . . 1 can of little green peas . . . 1 cup of sliced carrots . . . 2 chopped onions . . . 1 teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper . . . 1 can of cream of tomato soup thinned with ½ can of water . . . 1 large raw potato, sliced.

Mix all ingredients in a casserole dish and cover with a tight lid. Place in 275-degree oven and let it cook for 5 hours. This recipe makes 5-6 servings and you can get other things done while it cooks!

QUICK AND EASY POUND CAKE
This sweet dessert was submitted by one of our Fellowship Friends in Connecticut.

Ingredients: 1 package of cake mix (any kind) . . . 1 package instant pudding (any kind) . . . 1 cup water . . . ½ cup vegetable oil . . . 4 eggs.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Combine all ingredients in a large bowl and mix well. Pour batter into a round pan that has been well greased and floured. Bake for about 40 to 50 minutes, until cake is firm to touch. Remember, any flavor cake mix and pudding mix can be used, and powdered sugar makes a nice, simple topping, if desired.

POTATO SALAD
An Idaho Member of Fellowship says her family enjoys this spiced up and hearty potato dish.

Ingredients: 2 pounds new potatoes, cooked and cubed . . . 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese . . . 8 slices bacon, cooked crisp and crumbled . . . 1 cup mayonnaise . . . 2 tablespoons milk . . . 1/2 cup green onion, sliced . . . salt and pepper to taste.

Combine all ingredients and toss well to coat. Chill at least one hour, then serve and enjoy!

TIP: When your soup or sauce is ready to simmer, throw in an old cheese rind. The rind will soften and the flavors of the cheese will infuse throughout the dish.
Dear Fellowship,

From last year to now, things haven’t been going too well with me. It started with me losing my job early in the year, however, I managed to get by.

Then, in November that year I fell ill, and the doctors said it was something that could not be cured. I was bed-ridden for some time, unable to move or do anything for myself. I went through so much pain and suffering, and the drugs I was given seemed to have no effect on me. They just weren’t helping. I was at a low point in my life, and wondered if this was how it would be for me for the forseeable future. I didn’t see how I could go on in that state.

But then, you came into my life! Fellowship gave me hope and the courage to have faith and believe that anything is possible with God’s help. It was an uplifting experience that truly opened my eyes.

Yes, I have been blessed since I was introduced to Life-Study Fellowship, and you have served me well with your copies of Faith Magazine. When I was ill, all I had to hold onto was Fellowship Three Daily Prayers and Daily Bible Verses. I read them faithfully every day, and I believe it was the power of God that lifted me up and helped me heal.

You have touched my life in a special way, Fellowship, and it is a miracle that I am still alive. God has raised me from my sick bed and I have started to move around and walk again. I am thrilled to be able to get up and care for myself, since I couldn’t do that before. God is truly great.

I must say thank you, and I appreciate you being there for me through these trying times. May God bless you all in Life-Study Fellowship, and please continue your good work!

Member Nerissa M., Trinidad
Dear Member, can you imagine an aircraft pilot taking off from the runway and climbing into the clouds ... then getting on the intercom and asking the passengers, “Where should we go today?”

Well, of course not.

But you might be surprised to learn that’s how many folks haphazardly start each day. They get up in the morning and just move through their daily routines with no guidance or thought to what may lay ahead.

The trouble with doing that is, if you don’t know where you want to go, it’s doubtful you’ll ever get there. If you want to be a happy, healthy, prosperous person, you’ll need someone to guide your steps along life’s journey.

That someone is God.

And that leads into the meaning of our Fellowship way of life. We Members know where we are going, how to get there, and who is the “Control Tower” guiding our journey!

We begin the day with our Fellowship Morning Prayer for the Lord’s Guidance. In a way, we’re asking for our “flight instructions” to start the day.

Then, we say our Noon Prayer for Prosperity. That is to make sure we have enough to provide for ourselves and our loved ones.

In the evening we pray to God for Health and Healing, asking Him to keep us safe and grant the blessing of restful slumber.

Now, seeking God’s guidance as a life coach doesn’t mean we won’t encounter stormy weather or other challenges throughout our lives. No, Dear Friend, things will happen that we weren’t expecting!

But putting God in the pilot’s seat of your life means He will help you make a smooth landing. The Lord will always work with you to solve problems and make your “flight” a good one.
What made you turn to this page and reach out to write down your concerns, Dear Friend?

Were you led to find the message we ask everyone who reads this far into Faith Magazine? That message is, we want to help you talk to the Lord and work with Him to sort out your problems!

If you’re reading these words, know that Fellowship’s Special Help Department stands ready to assist you in using the awesome power of prayer to make changes in your life. That’s right, no matter what problems or pressures you are facing right now, you can be sure God can address them. All you need to do to seek His help is write down whatever is concerning you on the lines of Page 17, then cut out that page and mail it back to Fellowship at the address provided at the top of the page.

As soon as we get your letter our Special Help Department will begin drafting personalized prayer help for you. We will mail that out quickly so you can start using your prayers right away to make those life-changing decisions.

There is no charge for this service either. We are simply here to help others.

You will also have the chance to participate in our unified Daily Prayers with all of our Members. These prayers are said every day around the World, so you can imagine what a positive and powerful message they create.

Fellowship’s personal prayer help has assisted hundreds and hundreds of people to take the first steps toward improving their lives.

Will you be next, Dear Friend?

Take That First Positive Step By Writing Down Your Concerns On Page 17!
Dear Life-Study Fellowship,

Greetings to you in the name of Jesus! I’m writing to you to express my overwhelming joy that I felt when I came across your Faith Magazine. I have never read a magazine like this one. It is full of joy. The articles on every page seem to just fit my circumstances.

In this magazine you have something for everything and everyone. But the parts I like best are the prayers that all Fellowship Friends pray at the same time, so that everyone will be in the same accord.

Then, there are the Daily Bible Verses for each month. And, I can’t forget the little “Strength For The Day” prayers. I’m just so excited about getting this magazine at my home. It is just the uplifting message I need to keep me going.

I was involved in an automobile accident and I’m not working, but if possible could you send me a Faith Magazine after you receive this letter? I will be sure to send you something when I do get some money, because I believe this magazine and Fellowship are going to help me in my spiritual walk with the Lord. Once again, thank you for your inspiration and caring.

Member Linda K., North Carolina

Dear Fellowship,

I am so grateful to have such great and caring Members like you in my life. My daughter went into surgery for cancer and I received a letter two days afterward from Life-Study Fellowship. It was like you felt my pain! She is home now and doing fine. It’s amazing; it was like you knew there was something going on in my life that was causing me concern.

I want to thank you so much for your prayer help. I also thank God for Life-Study Fellowship. I have been a Member for 33 years. I wouldn’t be without you. May God bless each one of you. I will keep in touch!

We invite you to write down and carry these 31 selected Bible Verses for the month of August with you...one for each day. Think of these as your “guiding words” from God, and let them be a source of comfort and strength as you go about your daily activities.

1. “His understanding is infinite” Psalm 147:5
2. “Let there be no strife” Genesis 13:8
3. “Blessed are the merciful” Matthew 5:7
4. “I am with you, saith the Lord” Haggai 1:13
5. “A friend loveth at all times” Proverbs 17:17
6. “My cup runneth over.” Psalm 23:5
7. “Judge not, and ye shall not be judged” Luke 6:37
8. “The Lord shall be thine everlasting light” Isaiah 60:20
9. “Forget not all His benefits” Psalm 103:2
10. “Have faith, and doubt not” Matthew 21:21
11. “Lean upon the Lord” Micah 3:11
12. “Do always those things that please Him” John 8:29
14. “Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry” Eccl. 7:9
15. “Serve the Lord with all your heart” I Samuel 12:20
16. “The Lord shall guide thee continually” Isaiah 58:11
17. “Live in peace” II Cor. 13:11
18. “He will do thee good” Deut. 30:5
19. “With the Lord there is mercy” Psalm 130:7
20. “Seek, and ye shall find” Matthew 7:7
21. “The Lord stood with me, and strengthened me” II Timothy 4:17
22. “Thou shalt have plenty” Job 22:25
23. “Every one that asketh receiveth” Luke 11:10

28. “Harden not your heart” Psalm 95:8
29. “I will give you rest” Matthew 11:28
30. “Grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord” II Peter 3:18
Every day, your Fellowship Friends join forces in spirit as they say Fellowship’s Three Daily Prayers. It is a tremendous, positive flow of energy that lifts up all who take part in it. We invite you to add your voice, Dear Friend, and feel the power of united prayer!

“I will answer Him!”

Psalm 91

8:00 A.M. Prayer for Guidance

Lord, my Fellow Members and I thank You for this morning that dawns calm and beautiful. As we go through this day, please help us maintain its beauty. Lend us Your Divine Guidance for our daily activities. Let Your Guiding Spirit lead us and help us rise to new heights of service to You. Shine Your light on each Member in our Fellowship, O Father, for we seek to honor You with one united voice.

— Amen

12:00 Noon Prayer for Prosperity

As the noonday sun climbs high, I pause to say my afternoon prayer. Please bless me and my Fellowship Friends with Prosperity and Abundance, so we may keep ourselves and our loved ones secure and happy. Let our minds be at peace and our bodies productive during this day. Keep us safe as we toil and return home this evening. — Amen

9:00 P.M. Prayer for Health and Healing

Bless my Fellow Members and me on this warm August evening, O Lord. Please grace us with the twin blessings of Good Health and Healing, and let the day’s challenges fade away so we may get a good night’s sleep. As You watch over us, we will feel Your comforting presence, and rejoice in knowing You love and cherish us. Strengthen us in spirit and body, Father, so we wake up refreshed and ready to start work in a new day.

— Amen
There’s no telling who might stop by your home during summer vacation. Here are some hints and tips to keep things tidy and looking their best. We invite you to try them out, Dear Member! And, if you have some trusty go-to tips of your own, please share them with us!

REPAIR SCRATCHES
To repair scratches on surface of wood furniture, try filling them in with an appropriate shade of colored pencil.

GET RID OF SCUFF MARKS
To remove stubborn dirt or scuff marks on walls, furniture, shoes, etc. . . . try Mr. Clean Magic Eraser. It cleans up woodwork and shines shoes like new.

NO MORE BLEACH SMELL
To remove bleach smell from hands (and that slimy feeling) pour a little vinegar or lemon juice over your hands then rinse. (Bleach is alkaline, vinegar and lemon are acidic, so they cancel each other out).

RECYCLE PLASTIC GROCERY BAGS
Here’s a tip to use up those plastic grocery bags that we all accumulate. You can attach those 3M Command utility hooks (the kind that release from any surface just by pulling the tab) onto the sides of your kitchen garbage bin - the kind that attaches to the inside of a cabinet door. Put the Command hooks -- one on each side -- a few inches below the rim and upside down. Instead of buying expensive garbage bags you can now hang a pair of plastic grocery bags from the hooks and tuck the edges neatly round the top of the bin. They won’t sink into the bin as they fill up, and when the bin needs emptying just unhook the bag and tie the handles together to discard it. It’s a great way to use up grocery bags instead of throwing them away.

CLEAN STAINLESS STEEL
Those shiny, stainless steel appliances are magnets for fingerprints and smudges. To clean them you can try the same trick used by the folks at the Sears store . . . They put a little baby oil on a cloth or napkin and wipe the fingerprints away. It also works to remove sticky residue from price stickers or tape.

BROKEN GLASS
Use a piece of bread to pick up fragments of broken glass and be sure none are left on the floor.
Fellowship's tiny “sermons” pack a lot of joy, inspiration and fun into a few humorous words. They are contributed by our Members, so please consider sharing a pithy, funny saying like the ones below and you may see it in a future edition of FAITH.

“A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.”
Member Irene R.

“A dark World needs the risen Son.”
Member Mary J.

“A man is not ready to live if he is not ready to die.”
Member Billy T.

“A marriage is the union of two forgivers.”
Member Richard B.

“A person is never so empty than when he is full of himself.”
Member Gertrude H.

“A mistake is the opportunity to begin again!”
Member Annette C.

“A ton of religion doesn’t equal an ounce of salvation.”
Member Larry F.

“A person whose Bible is falling apart usually isn’t.”
Member Jerry D.

“A.S.A.P. means ‘Always say a prayer!’ ”
Member Bailey R.

“A rumor is about as easy to unspread as butter!”
Member Patty C.

“A smile is a curve that can set a lot of things straight.”
Member Jason P.

“A World of love makes a world of difference.”
Member Tracy D.

“An early walk and talk with the Lord will last all day.”
Member Carrie M.

“If you’re lost, come into the church for direction!”
Member Frank W.

“Ask about our pray-as-you-go plan.”
Member Eunice W.

“Become an organ donor; give your heart to Jesus.”
Member Dale T.

“Can your life stand an eternal audit?”
Member Anne L.

“Change is inevitable, growth is an option.”
Member Denny C.

“Come to church for a faith lift.”
Member Lenora F.
Feeling Down? Then Try A Physical And Spiritual Cleanup!

Do you ever feel discouraged and “down,” Dear Member? Do you find yourself complaining about all the unwanted things that happened to you in a day, or week?

Well, one of our Members wrote us about a terrific tip to make that feeling go away. She said when she starts feeling down, she starts what she calls her “clean-up time.”

Instead of sitting in a chair, stewing over unpleasant things that happened, she cleans out her closets of clothes she hasn’t worn in a while and gets them ready to donate. Then, she tells us she begins cleaning her kitchen and works her way over to the bathroom, and finally other rooms in her house.

This Member says when she cleans and gets rid of stuff she doesn’t need, she simply feels better, and very often, something nice will happen to her!

We think that’s because when she is physically cleaning her home, she’s also mentally cleaning her spirit. Think about how liberating it feels to throw out or donate items you no longer need. It promotes a feeling of accomplishment and clears out clutter at the same time. As our Member cleans and gets rid of stuff that is no longer useful to her, she also has the opportunity to clear those things from her mind, making space for things that really matter.

Now, you don’t have to physically clean house to do a spiritual cleaning, Dear Friend. No, you can decide to spend more time in prayer with the Lord. Or, you might resolve to take part each day in Fellowship’s Three Daily Prayers.

These are things that could give you the spiritual “tune-up” you’ve been looking for, and they don’t cost a thing. We know for a fact you’ll feel better about yourself, just as our Member who physically cleaned her house when she felt down.

The idea is the same . . . to discard what you don’t want or need . . . and spend more time being inspired by the Lord.
Let me begin this letter by thanking God and each of my Fellow Members who pray for me and with me during Fellowship’s Daily Prayers. Through those prayers, the Lord has given me hope and love. He has given me faith and trust to believe in Him. And, He has given me confidence within myself, teaching me to accept whatever might come my way, knowing that I may forever turn to Him for the help I need.

I did not feel this way at all just a short time ago! I was terribly depressed and had no idea that a new life was about to begin for me!

The problem I was facing was one that many women unfortunately encounter... my husband suddenly left me. I found myself lost in a World of loneliness and confusion. The children and I managed as best we could, and I tried to think of some relative or friend to help us, but there was no one. We lingered on, and there were moments when I thought about asking God to help us. But, I didn’t know what to say. You may find this odd, Fellow Members, but I just didn’t know how to pray! Yes, you read that right.

Then, guided in some wondrous way, my eyes fell upon a little announcement in the local newspaper. It was a notice about Life-Study Fellowship. I read it several times. The thought of others helping me through prayer filled my mind with a ray of hope, so I decided to join our Fellowship.

That was the beginning of a new life for me! I feel I have really and truly been helped. Now, I know how to pray, and I have found the peace and wisdom I was seeking before. God lifted my burdens. He comforted me and gave me the power to overcome my problems. The best thing is, He can do the same thing for you, Dear Member! That’s right, no matter who you are, you can get God’s help at any time or anywhere. Just open your heart and ask Him to help. He will answer!

It’s a new day and our Fellowship Friends start it by saying the Daily Prayers in each edition of Faith Magazine. We are eager to use the power of prayer to make our lives better, Dear Member, so please join us in these special united prayers! Be assured the Lord will hear your voice and answer!

“Pray everywhere!”

I Timothy 2:8

8:00 A.M. Prayer for Guidance

O Lord, the dawn brings a fresh start for all of us, and this new day calls me and my Fellow Members into shared paths of service. Grant us strength and clear minds, and Guide us throughout the day. Make us worthy of Your blessings, Father. We ask You to lead and watch over us as we go to work and other activities. Help us live up to Your example, and be the good and decent people that we aspire to be! — Amen

12:00 Noon Prayer for Prosperity

As the clock strikes noon, I pause my duties to pray. I ask You to bless me and my Fellow Members with Prosperity and Success in all we do today, Dear Father. We will strive to be worthy of Your blessings, and promise to finish the work we have started, for we have loved ones to support at home. It is good to know You appreciate us, Lord. Let us be productive and safe at work, so we may save up money for future needs. — Amen

9:00 P.M. Prayer for Health and Healing

The stars are out in the evening sky, and as I prepare for bed I and my Fellow Members are ready for a good night’s sleep. We are tired, and ask You to bless us with a deep sleep, as well as Good Health and Healing. Protect us tonight, O Lord, and hold us close. Soothe the thoughts whirling around our minds so we may fall asleep quickly. — Amen
“Increase In Pay”

I had used my Prosperity Harvest Plan only a week when I got a wonderful surprise. I received an increase in pay without even hinting or asking for it. I had used the Plan several times before, but that was the fastest it had ever worked.

“Somewhere”

Somewhere there’s a solution, To every problem known,
But no person can find it By trying all alone.
Somewhere, there’s a Someone, Who knows your every care,
Have faith and He will answer Some way, somehow, somewhere!

SUMMER SUNS ARE GLOWING!

Summer suns are glowing over land and sea;
happy light is flowing
bountiful and free.
Everything rejoices
in the mellow rays;
all Earth's thousand voices swell the psalm of praise.

See God's mercy streaming
over all the World, and His banner gleaming
everywhere unfurled.
Broad and deep and glorious
as the Heaven above, shines in might victorious
His eternal love.

Lord, upon our blindness
Your pure radiance pour;
for Your loving-kindness
make us love You more.
And, when clouds are drifting
dark across the sky,
then, the veil uplifting,
Father, still be nigh.

We will never doubt You,
though You veil Your light;
life is dark without You,
death with You is bright.
Light of light, shine o'er us
on our pilgrim way;
still go on before us
to the endless day.

By William Walsham How -1871
We enjoy getting many letters from our Members, and not long ago one of our Fellowship Friends related a story with special meaning to us. We’d like to share it with you, too, Dear Friend.

It involved a chance meeting of two people on the steps of a convention center. An older man was coming up the stairs leaning on a cane, just as a younger man was bounding down the steps.

As they met, the elderly gentleman asked if the center was where they were having a reunion.

The younger man answered that yes, it was, and he told the senior citizen in what room he would find the reunion. Then, he looked at the old man, who was probably in his 80s or even 90s, and asked if needed help getting up the rest of the stairs.

The older man answered that it was kind of the younger guy to ask, but he was just fine! He added “I got my cane and my Lord, and when I lean on them I can go anywhere and do anything.”

And with that, the older man walked up the stairs and went on his way. But, he left a seed of thought with his younger counterpart.

You see, we all may not need a cane at this stage of life, but we all sure do need to lean on the Lord at one time or another. Through faith, God gives us the courage and inner strength to persevere through life’s challenges, and to know we can go anywhere and do anything!

The older gentleman had gained that knowledge over a lifetime of facing whatever good things or obstacles came his way. It’s a life lesson that benefits everyone, Dear Member, and one that is easier to learn early on so we don’t have to struggle later in life.

So, how do you learn to “lean on the Lord” for the support only He can offer? Why, through prayer, of course. It is your direct line of communication with God, a private channel that is always open for your use.

Prayer Is Your Private Line Of Communication With God!

BRINGING HIS BLESSINGS
Dear Member, you’ve now read through our Summer issue of Faith Magazine with its theme of Jesus relaying God’s message that faith in Him is the real “Bread of Life.” If you liked our magazine we hope you’ll consider supporting it with a contribution, since Fellowship operates completely on donations. Everyone who gives $10 or more will receive a special gift booklet called “Bible Verses For Daily Living” and a thank-you note. Thanks for your Membership, and don’t forget to drop us a line and tell us how you are doing! We love to hear from Members, just as we love to send our letters and cards to you, our valued Fellowship Friends. Have a happy summer!
