Do you remember Scholastic Book Orders? I loved them, and they still exist! They have reading clubs for pre-K - 9th grade. If your child's teacher does NOT send book orders home and you want to order books, you can order any book from any Scholastic book order by going to their website: <https://clubs.scholastic.com/> and using this code to link your student to Mrs. Clark: NPKQ2. You can place all orders and purchase books online. Please do not send cash or checks to school. Mrs. Clark will place book orders on November 15. They take about 2 weeks to ship, so they should arrive the week of November 26. Then she will give students requests to reports to come pick up their books. She's always ordering for her own elementary school child, and you can order for all age groups, too. They have board books and early readers, as well as Young Adult Literature. If you are ordering a book as a gift, and don't want your student to know, send Mrs. Clark an email, ttclark@seattleschools.org, and she will arrange a pick up time.

Sidewalk Closure on 35th Ave & 75th Street NE: Sidewalk repair work is underway between NE 75th St and NE 89th St with multiple pedestrian detours in place along the corridor. In particular, work is restarting at NE 75th St and 35th Ave NE, and the southwest corner will be closed beginning as early as 11/5. This work will take at least 1 week to complete. Please follow the attached Pedestrian Detour to and from Eckstein Middle School and pay attention to posted detour signs. As a reminder, the project email updates are the best way to stay informed about upcoming construction. If you have any questions or concerns, please call our construction information hotline at (206) 512-3950 or email the project at 35thAvePaving@seattle.gov.
