LETTER FROM THE 6th GRADE COUNSELOR

Dear Families,

It's been a busy week here at Eckstein. Spring has definitely sprung and our Eagles have a great deal of energy! Here are some highlights from around the building this week.

7th Grade science students show their support for their teacher who is fighting cancer. Today was school-wide hat day in solidarity with our colleague & friend, Mona Aboel-Nil. Eckstein Eagles are the best!

On Thursday we had Houston Kraft for an assembly – his message is all about choosing love and choosing kindness – a great message for all of us to hear. After the assembly he met with students who will be in our leadership class next year so they could plan how to reinforce his message and put it into practice school wide. <https://www.houstonkraft.com/> if you would like to know more about Houston and his message.

Counselors have been getting out into classes to teach mindful breathing strategies to our students to help them cope with the stress that can come along with being a middle school student. Mindful breathing is a scientifically proven method for helping reduce stress, increase focus, and calm swirling minds & emotions. If your 6th grader has PE this semester they get a dose every Monday with Ms. Duncan, our 6th grade counselor. She is holding a Hoberman Sphere and it's used for focused breathing exercises.

Niki Duncan, 6th Grade Counselor & Head Counselor

Eckstein Garden Committee Update: The Garden Committee has been busy cleaning up the fruit tree beds in the courtyard garden in preparation for mulching. We've even begun to mulch, if you want to stop by and get an idea of what the garden will look like when we're finished. We are meeting again Saturday, March 31 at 2pm to finish cleanup. We have gloves and tools, you can just show up if you'd like to help. We also need donations of cardboard boxes. They can be dropped off in the courtyard before 3pm on Saturday. We're spreading mulch the weekend of April 7th and 8th, and need volunteers to complete this part of the project. If you can commit some time spreading mulch on one of these days, please contact Rochelle Lucero.

Eckstein ASB Popcorn Fundraiser: Eckstein's ASB council would love your participation in another round of fundraising through Double Good (formerly Popcorn Palace). Your students will adore these delicious popcorn treats, and they are a great snack for guests. We were delighted with the amount of sales made from our See's Candies fundraiser, and would be honored to collect just as many funds, if not more. These sales will be used for field trips, planners, sports teams, student supplies, student financial aid, and so much more. On March 19, your students will come home with a form, which will need to be turned in by April 6, which is the day before Spring Break. These forms will include the list of different popcorn options, along with pricing. We will be picking up the forms on April 6. Once the purchase order is created, we expect 1-2 weeks for the shipment, similar to our last fundraiser. The ASB students tried samples of a couple of the flavors and were thoroughly impressed with the treats. We look forward to your support!
