*Mrs. Clark is looking for large donations of tennis balls. She needs about 300 to put on the feet of her chairs. The ones that were donated last year are wearing out and need to be replaced. The tennis balls dampen noise and decrease the amount of dust in the air, since the chairs are not scraping the tiles. Any donation, large or small, is appreciated. Please drop off the tennis balls in the main office. Thanks! ~ Mrs. Clark

School Bus Service Update Jan. 8. Posted on 01/08/2018: This is the latest information about labor issues that may affect your student's First Student school bus route. First Student school bus drivers voted down a benefits package on Jan. 6, 2018. After the vote, the drivers' union indicated First Student drivers could strike again. The district does not know when or if a strike will happen. However, they will continue to closely monitor. If there is a strike, schools will remain open and on regular schedule. Follow Seattle Public Schools on Twitter @seapubschools. Opens a New Window. and like us on Facebook.

Update NAEP (National Assessment of Education Progress) Assessments at Eckstein on February 7th for 75 randomly selected 8th graders: A group of our 8th-graders will represent thousands of others across the country on February 7th! Known as The Nation's Report Card, NAEP is the largest nationally representative and continuing assessment of what students in the United States know and can do in a variety of subjects. Learn more at <http://1.usa.gov/1jVs1Wt>. Letters were mailed out today (December 15) to those selected students. If you receive this letter, please read it and if you choose not to have your student participate, please notify Sue Wong at st Wong@seattleschools.org by no later than January 12th

The Eckstein Counseling Department is offering a parent night on the topic of Executive Skills. Wednesday, January 24th in the Eckstein Library from 6:30-7:30pm. What are Executive Skills? Simply put, they are the skills that allow us to get things done and to manage ourselves. They include: sustained attention, task initiation, emotional control, planning, organization, time management and response inhibition to name a few. These skills are vital to success in school, work and life. Middle school is a very key time to build those skills so that adolescents grow into independent adults. Please join the Eckstein Counselors for a workshop on understanding executive skills and building them in our young Eagles.

Yearbook Sales: Parents/Guardians can begin purchasing yearbooks ($25) online starting on 1/12/18 – 2/1/18. Payments by check ($25 payable to Eckstein Middle School) can be made at any time until we run out. Prices go up to $30 on starting on 1/31/18.

Eckstein ASB and Leadership Sponsored School Dance – Friday, January 26, 2018, 6:30-8:00p: Our ASB and Leadership students are working together to create a memorable dance for all Eckstein students, but are short on decorations and parent chaperones. We would love donated lights or other decorations that can spruce up the cafeteria for our winter themed dance. It is expected that 100-200 students may show up and we need a 1:15 parent to student ratio for chaperones. So far we have a few teachers and could use parents to complement the adult crowd.

- Supplying decorations? Contact teacher Ms. Brothers at abbrothers@seattleschools.org and drop off all donated decorations to Room 208 by Thursday, January 25.
- Chaperoning? Contact Assistant Secretary Celeste Hansen at crhansen@seattleschools.org. There is paperwork completed and background checks to be made.

Thank you in advance for any help you can give to our students!

Source Accounts: Source accounts parents and guardians set up prior to August 2017 of this year with a username that does NOT match the email address on PowerSchool > Demographics > Student Contact will be DISABLED Saturday, February 3, 2018.

Some parents may still be using these old Source accounts. When you log in, and see an alert, but have not taken action, you will NOT have access to Data Verification Forms or SchoolPay. In this case you will need to provide Eckstein (Sue Wong st Wong@seattleschools.org, Ann Peterson apeterson@seattleschools.org or Julia Detering jrdetering@seattleschools.org) the same email address for each SPS student in their family to ensure continued

Source access. If the school updates parent/guardian email addresses, the change will take 2 hours to sync with the Source. After waiting 2 hours, the parent/guardian will need to clear the cache on their browser, close their browser, reopen and set up their Source account with the new email address.

If parents/guardians use a smart phone to view the Source, remember to use a supported browser such as Chrome or Firefox and the Source URL: <http://ps.seattleschools.org> Do NOT to install the PowerSchool APP as it does not support SPS customizations.

Update: Student Assignment Transition Plan and High School Boundaries: The Seattle School Board voted not to adopt the 2018-19 Student Assignment Transition Plan (SATP) at the Dec. 6, 2017 board meeting. The 2018-19 SATP included recommendations on new high school highly capable pathways for 2019-20. This means that options for programs and enrollment outlined in the 2017-18 SATP will carry forward through next school year. For the full text click HERE.
