LETTER FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Eckstein Families,

The sun is out and students are ready for the weekend!

This next week is English Language Arts Smarter Balance Assessment (SBA). Our team has worked hard to condense the testing schedule. This will ensure that students have a focused and supportive environment without compromising large amount of classroom times. Below is our testing schedule. Please make sure your student is well rested and has eaten a good breakfast.

Please also mark your calendars and remember that there is no school for students on May 3rd. This will be our Student Led Conference day. Please make an appointment with your student to be ready for this date.

Thank you.

**The SBA Standardized Test April 23-25: During testing it is difficult and a distraction to pull students out for early dismissals. Please plan accordingly by reviewing the testing schedule above in Principals Letter.

Testing Tips

- Remember on testing days, please have them leave their smart watches and cell phones at home or in their lockers. Otherwise, these devices will be held in a secure box in your testing location.

- Please remember to bring earbuds or headphones (NOT WIRELESS) on testing days for use with the test if you have them.
