James and Barbara Green

Jim and Barb Green reside in the rural town of Todd in Huntingdon County. Their address is 17759 Beavertown Road, Todd, PA. Their home school district is Tussey Mountain. They are a Caucasian family. They do not have children of their own, but have been very involved in the lives and upbringing of their nephews and step-children from previous relationships. Jim and Barb have a history of building and maintaining strong bonds with the children in their lives. The foster mother, Barb, is a hair stylist and business owner of her own hair salon. Barb also enjoys being a babysitter and CCD helping teacher at her church, helping to shape the lives of children by offering them structure, kindness, care, and instruction. The foster father, Jim, is an outdoor salesman for a home improvement store, where he has been employed for 22 years. Jim and Barb are a caring and kind couple who love the opportunity to share their love, home, and resources with children in need. They are able and willing to provide care to multiple children or to sibling groups of 2-3 children. They are currently open for 1-2 children.
