

Promise Week

April 24-28, 2017

Monday: Unmedicated Monday

Students will learn about the dangers of underage drinking, particularly underage drinking and driving. There will be a presentation by an Austin Police Department Officer. Sodas will be handed out during lunch to give students a substitute for drinking. Dress Code: Students will be allowed to wear shirts whose base color is solid black. Gray shirts will not be permitted.

Tuesday: Not Too Much Tuesday

Encourages students to abstain from drug abuse Dress Code: Students will be allowed to wear shirts whose base color is solid white.

Wednesday: Worship Wednesday

Dress Code: Mass Day Uniform

Thursday: Thoughtful Thursday

Students are encouraged to make smart choices. Smarties candy will be handed out during lunch to encourage students to make smart choices. Dress Code: Students will be allowed to wear shirts whose base color is solid navy or royal blue.

Friday: Freaky Friday

Appreciation of families and parental wisdom. Help us to take advice that is given to us. Students will watch part of Freaky Friday in house time. Dress Code: Students will be allowed to wear shirts whose base color is solid primary red. Orange and pink shirts are not permitted.

*FOR ALL DRESS DOWN DAYS: Lettering on shirt must be school appropriate and not cover more than half of the shirt. Other school guidelines for dress down days must be followed including wearing untattered jeans and closed-toed and closed-heeled shoes. See student handbook pages 26-27 . If students choose to not dress down, the school uniform must be worn.