

A workshop to Develop inter-agency collaboration that WORKS!!!

No more people “falling through the cracks”.

Many people working in health, education, community services, justice, and local non-profits have spent years in and out of inter-agency committees, which often turn into merely information-sharing sessions...until attendance just fades away. Then, when no real collaboration happens between the organizations, people keep falling through the cracks.

Join this action-oriented workshop and change your inter-agency work forever! Participants will learn a client-centered approach to collaboration, and new techniques that will make your inter-agency or inter-departmental efforts effective and worthwhile. Don't miss this opportunity!!

Todd Leader is a Social Worker, Community Psychologist, award winning change-leader, award-winning university educator, and author of the Amazon Best Seller “It's Not About Us; The Secret to Transforming the Mental Health and Addiction System in Canada”. Todd will provide a unique and practical experience you have not had before, and which will not end when you leave the workshop. This is where theory ends, and real change begins.

Tuesday March 14, 2017, 10:00-12:00

Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's Campus

G.A. Hickman Building, Faculty of Education, Room ED2018A (parking limited)

Registration cost $35.00 per person

Volume discount $25.00 per person if 3 or more people from the same organization

Register: (or for more info), please email todd@leader-development.ca, providing name, organization, email address, and telephone number. You will be invoiced at that time, and receive a receipt for payment.

For more information about Todd Leader, visit
<http://leader-development.ca/about>.

Thanks to our partner:

Office of Alumni Affairs and Development