RAISE MONEY & HAVE FUN WITH MARTIN LUTHER

Where did Martin Luther go? He has not appeared in a special front yard in weeks and it's time he started traveling again! Let's not forget about how fun it is to surprise our friends and family with a visit from Martin Luther. Remember, if you are chosen to receive a visit, you will need to make a donation to have him removed, or wait three days, in which time he will automatically be re-located. You may also purchase an indulgence for $25 to insure he will not visit your home again. To date we have raised $479, all money collected will help support our scholarship fund. For more information including travels and finances regarding Martin Luther, please contact Kelly Gruetzner or Kim Rasmussen.

We Are Looking For More Stephen Ministers

Do you have the Spiritual Gift (s) of Mercy, Helping, Servanthood or Encouragement? Do you enjoy listening, and caring for others? Pray about becoming a Stephen Minister. Stephen Ministers walk besides those in our congregation or community who are dealing with a difficult situation in their life. They show the love of Jesus by being there for those who may be struggling. They help Pastor in a caring ministry.

Being a Stephen Minister is a two - year commitment. You will be trained to be a care giver on one evening, every other week in the Spring, and some weekend retreats. Even after training, additional topics and supervision will continue one-night every other week during your tenure.

To sign up, or for more information contact any of our current Stephen Ministers:
