Dear Friends,

During this Season of Lent we have spent a lot of time talking about and focusing on the Cross, and on Christ's commitment to our Salvation. We have also focused on God's call to each of us to share the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ with others. Now, as we approach the Celebration of the Resurrection, and the Easter Season, it is time to roll up our sleeves and go to work! We need to brainstorm together and explore creative ways (new and tried and true) to reach out to our community and to engage it more effectively. We are called to explore and use our God-given talents for this purpose! This means we need to not only identify them, but also to sharpen them for use in His Kingdom.

The Message of the Cross and the Empty Tomb is a powerful one. We read in the Book of Acts about the explosive power, effect and impact of the Gospel message in the days of the early church — how the church grew from 12 . . . to 120 . . . to 3,000 . . . to 5,000 . . . from addition to multiplication . . . to entire communities turning to the Lord! Yet, even with this explosive start, we know the task is not finished. Let us pray for the same explosive power and effect of the Gospel message to take place in our church, our missions, and in the Greater Albuquerque community!

Just as the Lord worked through His disciples long ago to live, breathe and carry the message of the Gospel of Salvation to people and communities all over the world — He uses US to live, breathe, and carry the same message of the Gospel of Salvation to our families, our neighbors, our co-workers, and our community. Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit, continues to grow His church by working through us!

If we look at the mission outreach of the early church, we see several clearly evident characteristics. I will be sharing them with you in the coming months, both in sermons and in newsletters. Here is the first one to think and pray about as we renew a focus on outreach:

Reaching non-Christians was the highest priority for the early church. Indeed the very “call to arms” of Christ for His Church was to reach out and make disciples.

Ask yourself these questions: “What does this mean?” – “Is this characteristic present in the day to day life of our church? Is it present in Me?” – “Are we (Am I) committed to reaching out to non-Christians?” – “How can I help? What is God calling me to do?”

Spend time in prayer. Struggle in reflection and self-examination. Lift up Christ Lutheran Church and School, and brainstorm ideas guided by the Holy Spirit. Let's share, talk, explore, and celebrate the great things the God is doing in our midst!

In the service of Jesus,
Pastor Neal S. Groeling

Stephen Ministry

Stephen Ministers are being trained and should be commissioned at the end of April.

If you are going through a difficult time and would like support, think about getting a Stephen Minister. They will walk with you as long as is necessary.

Pray about it. Contact one of the Stephen Leaders: Cheryl Frazine, Jerry Shroff, Susan Dragan, Leslie Helge, and David Yocky.

From the Principal

Mark von Soosten

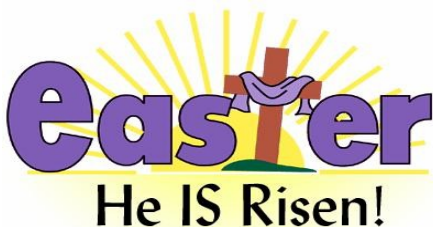

April is all but here. If you know me well, you know that for me, one of the most exciting things about this time of the year is that the Cardinals will be playing regular season baseball very soon!

As usual, there are other exciting things about April. We are in the fourth quarter of the school year. Our students have started spring golf and track and field, and we are already registering students for next year. As a matter of fact, we currently have 99 students registered for Kindergarten through eighth grade for the 2017-2018 school year. A year ago we only had 84 students registered for K-8!

Other events in April include the teacher Fellowship meal on April 5, the Lutheran School spelling bee on April 7, the fifth graders going to the Albuquerque Convention Center on April 13 for the Air Force Research Laboratory Marsville event. On Thursday, April 27 the Kindergarten and Preschoolers will be having their Spring Jubilee at 7 p.m. in the church. Join us for lots of fun. Finally, on Saturday, April 29, the Christ Lutheran School Parent-Teacher League is hosting their annual Craft Fair from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Contact the school office at 884-3876 ext. 100 if you would like to be an exhibitor, or join us that day for lots of fun!

Of course, the most exciting event in April is the celebration of Easter. Join us for chapel April 19 or 26 to hear more than 150 children say, "He is Risen Indeed, Alleluia!" God's blessings during this Easter season.

From the Congregation President

Jerry Shroff, Congregation Chairman

STEP OUT OF YOUR COMFORT ZONE

I love the season of Lent. It truly has a way of helping me to regain focus, direction, and in my weakness strengthens me. I am reminded of my mistakes but I am also reminded by what Christ did for me, that I have a completely new beginning and a time then to grow and walk His path with Him right beside me. It is an awesome time for me.

It is a time for me to step out of my comfort zone. I challenge you to also step out of your comfort zone.

I recently had a conversation with one of our more "senior" members, full of wisdom and a lot better memory than me. She was reminiscing to fifteen plus years ago when I came to Christ Lutheran Church and School, but was not involved in anything.

It is hard to remember those days, but what I know is those days lasted almost five years for me. You see, believe it or not, I am an introverted person and it is very easy for me to stay in a comfort zone.

It was about this time of year and I was fortunate that someone tapped me on my shoulder and asked me to be a part of the Public Relations Board and to do more than I was comfortable doing (which at the time in our church was to come less than regularly). What a great blessing that tapping on the shoulder was for me.

You see it helped push my faith into action which then gave my faith life in action. It caused me to grow. Everything I have been a part of since then, whether it has been with our public relations, youth, School, missions, visitations, council, study and worship, Prayerfully God has used me in His is published for members and friends of Christ Lutheran Church & School. News items for next month's Chronicle are due in the church office on the 15th of the month and may be edited for content or length. Thanks for your participation and cooperation! 😊

FROM THE BOARD OF YOUTH

First, we would like to thank everyone for all the fantastic support we received at the Chili Cook-Off. Despite many adversities, such as some youth being out of town and talent show entries having to cancel due to sickness, The Lord guided us through this very successful event. GOD IS GOOD!!!!

In March, we had a middle school night with high school youth helping out. 13 middle school kids showed up with a positive attitude. Enthusiasm for these events doesn't seem to waiver. CLY went to cheer on Olivia in a local volleyball tournament on March 18th. They also enjoyed a well-deserved spring break.

In April, we will be hosting the breakfast on Easter Sunday. Then the following Sunday we will be celebrating the graduation of our two seniors with our annual Senor Banquet. (Robin Oetting and Jay Rickers.)

The kids stay busy away from church with various sports. Oh.....be careful out there on the streets, Ben and Morgan are in drivers ed.

Thanks for all your support,

CLY and JoY

Easter Sunday,
April 16, 9:30 a.m.

The high school youth will be serving a delicious breakfast of burritos, fruit and home-made goodies to enjoy immediately following the 8:15 a.m. worship service. So, after celebrating our Savior's resurrection come on over to the Parish Hall for all the scrumptious delights and some Easter fellowship.

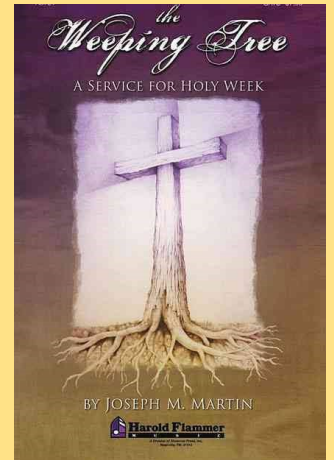

NOTES FROM YOUR MUSIC DIRECTOR

By Beth Shroff

Happy Spring!!

During this month of April we celebrate Holy Week. The choir is preparing a beautiful work "The Weeping Tree" for Palm Sunday, April 9. It will be an inspiring meditative expression of the cross using original and familiar words. Symbols of Christ's suffering add to the presentation. The love poured out for us by His blood is real! He died for all!

And He rose from the dead! We have the promise of eternal life! The bell choir will play on Easter Sunday, April 16.

Bring friends with you to worship during Holy Week. We have been commanded by Christ to spread the news of salvation to all who will hear it. Especially during this Holy Week, the message is clear – God sent His only Son into the world to save the world by Jesus' death and resurrection.

[Jesus] said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. Luke 24:46-47"

♣ Aluminum Cans: Please place your aluminum cans in the recycling container located in the parish hall near the soda machines. (Do Not throw them over the brick wall in the enclosed utility yard adjacent to the church. Bags of cans may damage the air conditioning and utility units in that area.) Thanks for your help!

efforts to touch others, but what I know is that He has used all of it to help me grow in my Faith.

I have truly been blessed through all of it. I have grown. Each Lenten season gets a bit deeper for me. Each Easter Celebration gets a bit more celebratory. God is so good when we allow Him to be.

So my challenge to you is simple. Do not wait for someone to tap on your shoulder to ask you to be on a Board as we begin the renewal process for our various boards. Volunteer to serve instead.

If a board is not your thing, then take some time to go volunteer at our mission, God Cares About You. Or simply take time to visit someone in the hospital or one of our home bound. Ask Phil Pelzman if there is some volunteer work you can do around our facilities.

Volunteer to be an usher or work on the Altar Guild. Join a Bible Study – I know you have an open invitation to any of them. PLEASE take it from me. I kick myself sometimes for the five years I just sat on the sidelines. God wants you to energize your Faith.

I promise if you step out of your comfort zone this Lenten Season you will never have regrets except that maybe you should have done it earlier.

Continue to have a Blessed Lenten Season,

Jerry

April 2, 2017 – Fifth Sunday in Lent

Psalm: 130; Epistle: Romans 8:1-11; Gospel: John 11:17-27, 38-53
"The Death of a Friend" - Sermon Text: John 11:17-27, 38-53 by Rev. Paul E. Shoemaker, Emanuel Lutheran Church ~ New Haven, IN The death of a loved one changes our world. Jesus had a friend who died and He felt great sorrow at the loss. The Good News is that Jesus has conquered death. As Jesus says, "He who believes in Me shall never die."

April 9, 2017 – Palm Sunday/Sunday of the Passion

Psalm: Psalm 118:19-29; Epistle: Philippians 2:5-11; Gospel: John 12:12-19 "Palm Sunday Exclamation" - Sermon Text: John 12:13b by Rev. Dr. Daniel J. Brege, St. Paul Lutheran Church ~ Decatur, IN On Palm Sunday the people shouted a profound exclamation: They were quoting from the Old Testament, they were labeling the work that Jesus was about to perform, and they were describing Christ's work among us now through Word and Sacrament: "Hosanna, Blessed is He who comes in the Name of the Lord."

April 16, 2017 – The Resurrection of Our Lord – Easter Day

Psalm: Psalm 118:15-29; Epistle: Acts 10:34-43; Gospel: Matthew 28:1-10 "This Is The Day!" - Sermon Text: Psalm 118:24 by Rev. Dr. Thomas R. Ahlersmeyer, Holy Cross Lutheran Church ~ Fort Wayne, IN Can you point to one day that changed the entire course of your life? Absolutely! Jesus' Easter Sunday victory over death has changed your eternity as well as how you face each day of your life. "THIS IS THE DAY that the Lord has made" is a hope-filled, joy-filled reality because Jesus Christ IS risen!

April 23, 2017 – Second Sunday of Easter

Psalm: Psalm 63:1-8; Epistle: 1 Peter 1:3-7; Gospel: John 20:19-31 "In Trials, Rejoice!" - Sermon Text: 1 Peter 1:3-7 by Rev. Dr. Walter A. Maier III, Concordia Theological Seminary ~ Fort Wayne, IN The apostle Peter encourages us to rejoice even in trials, and he tells us why we can do this. God has caused us to be born again to a living hope. Also, the genuineness of our faith is found through trials.

April 30, 2017 – Third Sunday of Easter

Psalm: Psalm 116:1-14; Epistle: 1 Peter 1:17-25; Gospel: Luke 24:13-35 "Resurrected Redeemer" - Sermon Text: Luke 24:21 by Rev. Dr. Daniel J. Brege, St. Paul Lutheran Church ~ Decatur, IN The Emmaus disciples had hoped that Jesus was the long awaited Redeemer. Alas, they thought He had failed, because He had been crucified. Amazingly this crucifixion is precisely the center of our redemption!

Senior fellowship

The April Senior Fellowship outing will be on Friday April 28th. We will be visiting the Albuquerque Museum and viewing an interesting temporary exhibit entitled "Hollywood Southwest: New Mexico in Film and Television"

We will meet at the Church a 11:00 AM....car pool to lunch and the visit the Museum.

For more information and/or to make a reservation contact either Eunice Hoeft at 889-9705 or Lee Swanger at 294-6752.

Quilters !

The quilters will meet in the Parish Hall on Tuesday, April 4 and 18 at 9:30 a.m.

Please join us for a morning of fellowship as we continue to tie lap robes.

Refreshments will be served. We meet from 9:30 am until about noon. These will be our last meetings as we take the summer off. Thank you to everyone who has helped since January! Questions? Please contact Lois Postenrieder (299-8388) or Carol Bickel (821-8051).

Honor Circle

We had a very good time of fellowship at our March meeting. We had a nice big private room and good food, so we decided to go back in April.

Because of Holy Week, we will delay our meeting until Thursday, April 20th. It will be held at Christees, almost at the corner of Indian School and Wyoming. It is a pretty red and white building with He Is Risen on one of the windows. Be there about 11:45. All ladies 55 or older are invited to join us. Call Eunice Hoeft at 889-9705 if you have questions.
