

Catharine von Schwarz Arroyo

As a UCLA student-athlete Cat Arroyo was a four-time all-American, player of the year and was inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame in 2010. As an undergraduate she was a 4-year varsity letterman at UCLA, 4-time national champion, team captain and was the first female athlete to win 4 national titles. Post-graduation Cat participated in the USA Junior national team, Italian A-1 professional league and USA Senior national team.

Intercollegiate coaching experience includes head coaching positions at Saint Mary's College (Moraga) and California State University at Long Beach (CSULB) along with assistant coaching positions with University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) and Golden West College.

USA National team work includes the Cadet National Team, Olympic Development Program, and several club directorships.

Cat graduated from UCLA with a bachelor of arts in History, received her master's in Elementary Education from Loyal Marymount and certificate for Early Childhood Education from Saddleback College.