About The Ladbrokes Winter Carnival

2018 marks the second Ladbrokes Winter Carnival featuring the Ladbrokes Trophy, formerly the Hennessy Gold Cup. Taking place on Friday, November 30 and Saturday, December 1, 2018, prize money across the two days is more than £700,000. The Ladbrokes Trophy alone has prize money of £250,000, making it the richest handicap chase in Britain outside of the Grand National at Aintree.

Since the prestigious handicap chase was first run as the Hennessy Gold Cup in 1957, it has become one of the major highlights of the Jump season with so many memorable performances in the 61 runnings from the likes of Mill House, Arkle, Denman, Many Clouds, Native River and last year's winner Total Recall, who became the first Irish-trained winner since 1980.

The Ladbrokes Winter Carnival gets underway at Newbury on Friday, November 30, when the highlight is the £50,000 G2 Ladbrokes Long Distance Hurdle over three miles.

There is live terrestrial coverage across both days of the Ladbrokes Winter Carnival. The broadcast will be on ITV4 on Friday, November 30 and ITV on Saturday, December 1, when The Opening Show is also hosted from Newbury. Racing UK shows all races from the Ladbrokes Winter Carnival.

Ladbrokes Trophy Facts & Figures

Background information

First run at Cheltenham in 1957, the Ladbrokes Trophy was transferred to Newbury three years later and has established itself as one of the most prestigious races in Jump racing.

The three and a quarter-mile handicap chase boasts a rich history with greats such as Arkle, Mill House, One Man, Denman, Many Clouds and Bregawn all having taken the spoils during their illustrious careers.

The race was sponsored by Ladbrokes for the first time in 2017. Hennessy had been associated with the race since its inception in 1957.

Multiple winners

There have been three dual winners – Mandarin (1957 & 1961), Arkle (1964 & 1965) and Denman (2007 & 2009).

Arkle narrowly failed in his bid for a famous hat-trick when going down by a half-length to 25/1 shot Stalbridge Colonist, to whom he was conceding 35lb, in 1966.

Denman attempted a hat-trick in 2010, coming home third under top-weight.

Most successful owner

Peggy Hennessy (Mandarin 1957 & 1961), Anne Duchess of Westminster (Arkle 1964 & 1965), Trevor Hemmings (Trabolgan 2005 & Many Clouds 2014) and Paul Barber/Maggie Findlay (Denman 2007 & 2009) are the most successful owners with two wins apiece.

Most successful trainer

The late Fulke Walwyn made the race his own, with seven victories between 1957 and 1981. They came courtesy of Mandarin (1957 & 1961), Taxidermist (1958), Mill House (1963), Man of the West (1968), Charlie Potheen (1972) and Diamond Edge (1981).

Among the current trainers, Nicky Henderson (2005 Trabolgan, 2012 Bobs Worth & 2013 Triolo D'Alene) and Paul Nicholls (2003 Strong Flow, 2007 & 2009 Denman) are the most successful with three wins apiece.

Three female trainers have won the Ladbrokes Trophy – Jenny Pitman with Burrough Hill Lad in 1984, Venetia Williams with Teeton Mill in 1998 and Lavinia Taylor with Gingembre in 2002.

Most successful jockey

Willie Robinson has been the winning-most jockey, with three wins aboard Mandarin (1961), Mill House (1963) and Man of the West (1968).

The most successful current riders are Barry Geraghty and Ruby Walsh with two victories each.

John Lawrence (Lord Oaksey) has been the only amateur rider to win the Ladbrokes Trophy, having teamed up with Taxidermist to score by a short-head in 1958. He also bred and part-owned Carruthers (half-brother to 2015 Cheltenham Gold Cup winner Coneygree), who was victorious in 2011.

Overseas-trained winners

Ireland (4): Arkle (1964 & 1965), Bright Highway (1980), Total Recall (2017)

Ridden & trained a Ladbrokes Trophy winner

	Rode	Trained
Derek Ancil	Knucklecracker (1960)	Knucklecracker (1960)
Andy Turnell	April Seventh (1975)	Cogent (1993)
Paul Nicholls	Broadheath (1986), Playschool (1987)	Strong Flow (2003), Denman (2007 & 2009)

Age

The breakdown of winners by age is as follows:

6yo – 12
7yo – 24
8yo – 12
9yo – 10
10yo – 2
11yo – 1

Greys

Six greys have triumphed - Stalbridge Colonist (1966), One Man (1994), Suny Bay (1997), Teeton Mill (1998), What's Up Boys (2001) and Smad Place (2015).

Mares

Only one mare has won the Ladbrokes Trophy. Kerstin (1959) landed the third and final running of the chase run at Cheltenham. She also won the 1958 Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Field size

The biggest field came in 1962 when 27 runners faced the starter, while the smallest saw Stalbridge Colonist beat five rivals in 1966. The current safety limit is 24.

Betting

The longest-priced winner of the Ladbrokes Trophy has been Sibton Abbey, a 40/1 outsider in 1992, while the shortest-priced was Arkle who justified odds of 1/6 in 1965.

In the 61 runnings, 18 favourites have obliged at a strike rate of 28.3 per cent, including the two most recent winners - Native River (7/2 - 2016) and Total Recall (9/2 - 2017).

Weights

A total of 31 winners have carried 11st or more to victory in the Ladbrokes Trophy, with the top-weight being defied eight times.

Those to carry top-weight are as follows: Mill House (12st - 1963), Arkle (12st 7lb - 1964 & 1965), Diamond Edge (11st 10lb - 1981), Burrough Hill Lad (12st - 1984), Trabolgan (11st 12lb - 2005) and Denman (11st 12lb - 2007 & 2009).

Ten winners have carried bottom weight of 10st, most recently Diamond Harry in 2010.

Winning margins

15 lengths is the longest winning margin – achieved by Knucklecracker 1960, Arkle 1965, Spanish Steps 1969 & Teeton Mill 1998.

A short-head is the narrowest winning margin witnessed, when Red Candle got the better of Red Rum in 1973.

Did you know?

The Willie Mullins-trained Be My Royal was first past the post in 2002, but was subsequently disqualified after testing positive for a banned substance.

Four horses have captured the Ladbrokes Trophy and the Cheltenham Gold Cup in the same season - Arkle, Bregawn, Denman and Bobs Worth.

Many Clouds is the only horse to have won both the Ladbrokes Trophy and the Grand National at Aintree.

The Ladbrokes Trophy

10 of the best winners

MANDARIN (1957 & 1961)

Mandarin was successful in the first edition of the race at Cheltenham in 1957, when he defeated the Gold Cup winner Linwell. Mandarin was also victorious when the contest switched to Newbury, following up with a second victory in 1961 and thereby providing trainer Fulke Walwyn with the first two of his record seven winners. Following the 1961 triumph, Mandarin went on to win the Cheltenham Gold Cup and France's greatest Jump race, the Grand Steeplechase de Paris. The small but admirably tough horse was owned by Peggy Hennessy, from the family of the original sponsor.

MILL HOUSE (1963)

Winner of one of the most famous renewals, Mill House scored as a six-year-old under 12 stone in 1963 to become trainer Fulke Walwyn's fourth winner of the race. Mill House had won the previous season's Cheltenham Gold Cup and followed up his Newbury victory by taking Kempton's King George VI Chase. Mill House's victory in the 1963 contest at Newbury is the only race in which he beat Arkle (11st 9lb), who finished third after slipping badly three fences from home.

ARKLE (1964 & 1965)

Arkle's two victories are the greatest seen in the race's history. "Himself" won under 12st 7lb in both years, defeating Ferry Boat by 10 lengths in 1964 and Freddie by 15 lengths in 1965. The greatest chaser of all-time, who won the Cheltenham Gold Cup thrice, attempted a hat-trick in 1966. Making his seasonal debut, he went down by half a length to the very useful Stalbridge Colonist, who was in receipt of 35lb.

BREGAWN (1982)

Bregawn gave trainer Michael Dickinson his first and only victory in the race when successful under Graham Bradley in 1982. Carrying 11st 10lb, he got up to beat stable companion Captain John by three lengths. Bregawn went on to lead home the trainer's "Famous Five" in the 1983 Cheltenham Gold Cup.

BURROUGH HILL LAD (1984)

The great Burrough Hill Lad made light of his 12st burden when taking the 1984 renewal by four lengths under John Francome, justifying 100/30 favouritism. Trainer Jenny Pitman's best-ever horse had won the Cheltenham Gold Cup the previous season and followed up his Newbury win by taking the King George VI Chase at Kempton Park.

ONE MAN (1994)

One Man carried the minimum of 10st to victory in 1994 when an unexposed six-year-old. The grey, trained by the late Gordon Richards in Cumbria, became one of the most popular chasers of the 1990s, taking the King George VI Chase twice before dropping back to two miles for a famous victory in the 1998 Queen Mother Champion Chase at the Cheltenham Festival.

TEETON MILL (1998)

The horse that put trainer Venetia Williams on the map, the grey Teeton Mill rose from the hunter chase ranks to win the 1998 running impressively by 15 lengths under Norman Williamson. The first runner for Williams in the race, he was subsequently successful in Grade One company in the King George VI Chase and the Ascot Chase.

DENMAN (2007 & 2009)

The best winner of the current century, Denman twice defied top-weight when victorious in 2007 and 2009. He followed up his 2007 win by defeating stable mate Kauto Star in the 2008 Cheltenham Gold Cup and was also runner-up in the Gold Cup in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The Paul Nicholls-trained chaser made a gallant hat-trick attempt when third under top-weight in 2010.

MANY CLOUDS (2014)

Although a number of Grand National winners have run in the Ladbrokes Trophy, most notably Red Rum who was runner-up to Red Candle at Newbury in 1973, no horse had managed to win both until Many Clouds in 2014/2015. Oliver Sherwood's charge, a hugely popular local winner at Newbury, was one of the best recent victors of the Grand National when defying 11st 9lb at Aintree four months later, with Leighton Aspell in the saddle both times.

NATIVE RIVER (2016)

Native River followed up success in the 2016 Ladbrokes Trophy with another major handicap chase victory in the Welsh National at Chepstow the following month. Trained by Colin Tizzard, he returned to Newbury to capture two renewals of the G2 Betfair Denman Chase and gained a thrilling all-the-way success in the 2018 Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Other main races at the Ladbrokes Winter Carnival

Friday, November 30, Ladbrokes Long Distance Hurdle (G2)

The Grade Two Ladbrokes Long Distance Hurdle usually goes the way of the top staying hurdler in training.

The 2017 renewal featured a clash between the previous two winners, Unowhatimeanharri and Thistlecrack, but there was a shock result when 40/1 chance Beer Goggles made all under champion jump jockey Richard Johnson for trainer Richard Woollacott. Unowhatimeanharri finished second, while Thistlecrack came home fifth.

Unowhatimeanharri won impressively in 2016 and went on to capture two G1 races during the season for owner J P McManus, trainer Harry Fry and jockey Barry Geraghty.

Thistlecrack was untouchable during the 2015/16 campaign. A six-length victory at Newbury on his comeback was followed by a string of facile displays, culminating with totally dominant victories in the G1 Stayers' Hurdle at Cheltenham and G1 Liverpool Hurdle at Aintree.

Record-breaking stayer Big Buck's (2009-2012) reeled off four successive victories at Newbury during a four-year winning streak that spanned 18 races, including an unprecedented four G1 Stayers' Hurdles.

Inglis Drever also made the race his own between 2005 and 2007. He captured his first G1 Stayers' Hurdle in 2005 and recovered from a career-threatening injury to regain the crown in 2007 and 2008.

French raider Baracouda (2003 & 2004) was a regular on these shores for Francois Doumen. He won 14 of his 19 starts in Britain, notably a record four G1 Long Walk Hurdles and two G1 Stayers' Hurdles.

Friday, November 30, Ladbrokes Novices' Chase (G2)

Three subsequent G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup winners – Denman, Bobs Worth and Coneygree – have won the G2 Ladbrokes Novices' Chase since the turn of the century.

Denman took the two and a half mile contest in 2006 during an unbeaten novice campaign, and began the following season with victory in the Hennessy Gold Cup, now the Ladbrokes Trophy, under top-weight.

Trained by Paul Nicholls, he galloped stable companion Kauto Star into submission in a memorable 2008 G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup, after which he recovered from a heart problem to win a second Hennessy Gold Cup, now the Ladbrokes Trophy, in 2009.

Bobs Worth defeated the very talented Cue Card by a short-head in the 2011 Ladbrokes Novices' Chase. Like Denman, Bobs Worth captured the G1 RSA Chase at the Cheltenham Festival, plus the following season's Hennessy Gold Cup, now the Ladbrokes Trophy, and the G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Coneygree became the first novice since Captain Christy (1974) to win the G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup in 2015.

He debuted over fences in the 2014 Ladbrokes Novices' Chase and warmed up for Cheltenham with a seven-length demolition of his rivals in the G2 Denman Chase back at Newbury the following February.

Saturday, December 1, Ladbrokes John Francome Novices' Chase (G2)

Newbury Racecourse announced in 2017 that the Grade Two novices' chase run over almost three miles on Ladbrokes Trophy Day would be renamed to honour John Francome MBE. The race, which started its life at Worcester in 1990, moved to Newbury in 2000 and has been won by star chasers Thistlecrack (2016) and Native River (2015) recently.

As a Pattern race, the race had to retain a permanent title or 'handle'. The previous handle was 'Worcester', but given that Newbury has hosted the race for 16 years, the BHA's Jump Pattern Committee agreed to allow the handle to be changed to 'John Francome', thereby allowing the legendary Jump jockey, broadcaster, novelist, charity supporter and entrepreneur to have his name permanently linked to a race for the first time.

John Francome won two Hennessy Gold Cups (now the Ladbrokes Trophy) on Brown Chamberlin (1983) and Burrough Hill Lad (1984).

The Ladbrokes John Francome Novices' Chase has proved a reliable source of high-class staying chasers. The 2016 winner Thistlecrack, the outstanding staying hurdler of his generation, was imperious in the G1 King George VI Chase at Kempton Park on his next start, making him the first novice to win the Boxing Day showpiece.

Run over just short of three miles, the Ladbrokes John Francome Novices' Chase is usually a good pointer to the G1 Feltham Novices' Chase at Kempton Park on Boxing Day. Darkness (2005), Joe Lively (2007) and Grands Crus (2011) have all completed the double in recent years, while several other Newbury winners have placed.

Thistlecrack's stablemate Native River (2015) captured the Ladbrokes John Francome Novices' Chase in 2015. He enjoyed a fantastic campaign in open company in the 2016/17, winning what is now the Ladbrokes Trophy, the Welsh National under top-weight, and the G2 Denman Chase back at Newbury before finishing third in the G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup. Last season he reappeared with a victory in the G2 Denman Handicap Chase at Newbury in February before going on to claim the Cheltenham Gold Cup the following month.

Trainer Colin Tizzard sent out the winner for the third successive year in 2017 when Elegant Escape beat prolific victor Black Corton. Both are due to clash again in the 2018 G1 Ladbrokes Trophy.

Saturday, December 1, Ladbrokes Intermediate Handicap Hurdle (limited handicap 0-155) (Listed)

The Ladbrokes Intermediate Limited Handicap Hurdle has been used as a springboard by some great hurdlers.

Comedy Of Errors opened his account at Newbury in 1972 on his way to the first of two G1 Champion Hurdle triumphs in 1973.

He was runner-up to that season's Ladbrokes Intermediate victor Lanzarote in the 1974 Champion Hurdle, but returned to Cheltenham the following year to regain the title, making him the first horse to do so.

Legendary Flat trainer Sir Michael Stoute was victorious in 1988 with G1 Triumph Hurdle hero Kribensis. Carrying the famous red and white colours of Sheikh Mohammed, Kribensis went unbeaten through the 1989/90 season annexing the Fighting Fifth Hurdle, Christmas Hurdle and Champion Hurdle. He remains the only horse to win those three races in the same season.

Rock On Ruby completed the Ladbrokes Intermediate Limited Handicap Hurdle-Champion Hurdle double in 2011/12. He turned over a top-class field at Cheltenham that included previous champions Hurricane Fly and Binocular.

Saturday, December 1, Sir Peter O'Sullivan Memorial Handicap Chase

The Sir Peter O'Sullivan Memorial Handicap Chase, worth £40,000 and run over two miles, six and a half furlongs, was first staged at Newbury in 2015.

The final commentary of Sir Peter's long and illustrious broadcasting career was on the Ladbrokes Trophy of 1997, won by Suny Bay.

O'Sullivan commentated on 40 of the first 41 runnings of the great race; the only one he missed was in 1983 when covering the Japan Cup in Tokyo.

The Sir Peter O'Sullivan Memorial Handicap Chase has been backed by friends of the late Sir Peter.

About Newbury Racecourse

Newbury Racecourse held its first race in 1905 and has long been one of Britain's leading tracks, staging up to 30 days of top class Jump and Flat racing annually, with at least one raceday in every month of the year.

The highlight of Newbury's Jump racing season is the £250,000 Ladbrokes Trophy, a handicap chase over an extended three and a quarter miles, which takes place on December 1 in 2018.

On the Flat, Newbury's high-quality programme includes the Al Shaqab Lockinge Stakes on May 19, with the Group One race over a mile worth £350,000.

The racecourse is also a thriving events venue, hosting a huge range of activities including weddings, concerts, and conferences for 20 to 1,000 attendees for a wide spectrum of businesses and organisations in stunning surroundings. In addition, it runs a successful private nursery, providing a safe, happy and stimulating learning environment for many pre-school children.

Newbury is now home to a major housing development by David Wilson Homes, allowing people to live in a unique location alongside a world-renowned sporting venue, which also benefits from a Nuffield Health Club.

The racecourse now has its own 36-bedroom hotel, The Lodge, which opened in June, 2016.

The £20-million 'heartspace' redevelopment of the Racecourse, which began in 2016, is now well underway.

August, 2017 saw the new Eastern Entrance opened as well as a re-modelled pre-parade ring, which was first used in the spring along with an enlarged parade ring and winner's enclosure with enhanced viewing for racegoers.
