Festival Trials Day Media Guide

Saturday, January 28, 2017

Introduction

Festival Trials Day on Saturday, January 28, 2017, sees a terrific nine-race programme boosted by the addition of the Grade One Clarence House Chase (1.45pm, 2m 62y), now sponsored by Spectra Group, from last Saturday's abandoned Ascot card and the Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase (2.50pm, 3m 6f 37y), rescheduled following its abandonment at The Open in November due to the lack of rain.

The Spectra – Cyber Security Solutions Clarence House Chase, re-opened for entries until noon on Tuesday, January 24 and worth £70,000, has been staged twice before at Cheltenham, in 2013 when Sprinter Sacre was successful and in 2005 when it was a G2 handicap chase and Well Chief defied top-weight.

The £100,000 Grade Two BetBright Trial Cotswold Chase (2.15pm, 3m 1f 56y) remains at the heart of Festival Trials Day and this year's renewal is set to include Timico Cheltenham Gold Cup favourite, unbeaten novice chaser Thistlecrack, and the last two winners, Smad Place and Many Clouds.

Top-quality staying hurdle action is provided by the £60,000 G2 galliardhomes.com Cleeve Hurdle (4.00pm, 2m 7f 213y) which Thistlecrack won in 2016 prior to his G1 Sun Bets Stayers' Hurdle romp at The Festival.

This media guide contains previous results for all races on Festival Trials Day at Cheltenham, dating back to at least 1990 or when they were instituted. Underneath each race result is a list of successful horses on the day who went on to win at The Festival in the same season. There are detailed statistics for the BetBright Trial Cotswold Chase, which often provides valuable pointers towards the Timico Cheltenham Gold Cup at The Festival in March. The most successful trainers and jockeys on Festival Trials Day are also highlighted.

Festival Trials Day is the final Cheltenham raceday before The Festival - Tuesday, March 14 to Friday, March 17.

Accompanied children, aged under 18, are admitted FREE on Festival Trials Day, when gates open at 10am.

FACTS & FIGURES – BETBRIGHT TRIAL COTSWOLD CHASE

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The BetBright Trial Cotswold Chase was first run in 1980 as the Tote Double Chase with a total prize fund of £5,215. The race was abandoned in 1987, 1992 (frost), 1996 (frost and snow) and 2006 (frost - a replacement was run at Wincanton the following Thursday).

The contest has had nine sponsors since inception: Tote Double Chase (1980-84), Holsten Distributions Chase (1985-87), Charterhouse Mercantile Chase (1988-92), Timeform Hall of Fame Chase (1993-94), Pillar Property Investments Chase (1995-2005), HBLB Cotswold Chase (2006), Letheby And Christopher Chase (2007-09) and Argento (2010-2014). BetBright sponsored for the first time in 2015.

The race held Grade Two status for the first time in 1999 and carries a total prize fund of £100,000 in 2017.

FIELD SIZE

The most runners to line up was 10 (2013), while three took part in 1982 and 1988.

MULTIPLE WINNERS

See More Business is the only dual winner, scoring in 1998 and 2001.

MOST SUCCESSFUL OWNER

The most successful outright owner is John Hales, with two victories courtesy of One Man (1997) and Neptune Collonges (2011). Paul Barber owned dual winner See More Business (1998 and 2011) in partnerships with John Keighley and Sir Robert Ogden respectively. The last-named also saw his colours carried to victory by Exotic Dancer (2007).

MOST SUCCESSFUL TRAINER

Champion Jump trainer Paul Nicholls has recorded four victories so far, through See More Business (1998 & 2001), Taranis (2010) and Neptune Collonges (2011).

MOST SUCCESSFUL JOCKEY

Sir A P McCoy has been the most successful rider with three triumphs - Cyfor Malta (1999), Exotic Dancer (2007) and Neptune Collonges (2011). Of the current riders, Richard Johnson is alone on two victories.

The only amateur rider to win has been Jim Wilson, who partnered Little Owl in 1981. The pair followed up in the Timico Cheltenham Gold Cup seven weeks later.

MARES

Two mares have been successful - Lesley Ann (1982) and Dubacilla (1994).

GREYS

Four greys have won - One Man (1997), Grey Abbey (2005), Neptune Collonges (2011) and Smad Place (2016).

BETTING

The race was staged at Wincanton in 2006 after Cheltenham could not race. The Seamus Mullins-trained See You Sometime was sent off the 18/1 outsider of five - the longest-priced winner. The shortest-priced winner was One Man, who obliged at odds of 2/5 in 1997.

However, favourites have gained success in just seven of the 34 runnings (20.6 per cent). The most recent market leader to prevail was the Martin Pipe-trained Cyfor Malta in 1999.

OVERSEAS-TRAINED WINNERS

IRELAND (1): Rince Ri (2002)

FRANCE (1): Jair Du Cochet (2004)

AGE

See More Business (2001), Grey Abbey (2005) and See You Sometime (2006) are the three oldest winners of the BetBright Trial Cotswold Chase - all were aged 11. At the other end of the spectrum, six-year-old Cyfor Malta was the youngest horse to score in 1999.

A breakdown of the winners by age is as follows:

6yo - 1

7yo - 7

8yo - 10

9yo - 9

10yo - 4

11yo - 3

RECORD TIME

6m 24.20s, set by One Man in 1997.

DID YOU KNOW?

Four BetBright Trial Chase winners have subsequently gone on to glory in the Timico Cheltenham Gold Cup. The Peter Easterby-trained Little Owl won the BetBright Trial Chase in 1981 before taking chasing's Blue Riband in the same year. Master Oats achieved the same feat for trainer Kim Bailey in 1995.

See More Business, successful in the 1998 BetBright Trial Chase and then again in 2001, captured the Gold Cup in 1999, while Looks Like Trouble achieved the double in 2000 for trainer Noel Chance.

Dawn Run, who won one of the most memorable renewals Cheltenham Gold Cup in 1986, ran in the BetBright Trial Chase prior to her famous victory. Starting the 4/9 favourite, the great mare looked to be well in command when unseating her rider Tony Mullins at the 16th fence. She was remounted to finish fourth behind Misty Spirit. She returned to Cheltenham in March to land chasing's championship event, becoming the only horse to win both the Champion Hurdle and the Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Three BetBright Trial Chase winners have gone on to win the Randox Health Grand National, the most recent being the Oliver Sherwood-trained Many Clouds in 2015. West Tip (1985) and Neptune Collonges (2011) both scored at Aintree the year after their Cheltenham triumphs.

The Giant Bolster, who retired at the age of 11 in November, 2016, had a remarkable record at Cheltenham Racecourse, both on Festival Trials Day and at The Festival. He won three times on Festival Trials Day, taking the Timeform Novices' Chase in 2011, the Grade Three Hugo's Restaurant Barbados Trophy Handicap Chase in 2012 and the Grade Two BetBright Trial Cotswold Chase in 2014. Trained by David Bridgwater locally and owned by Simon Hunt and Gary Lambton, he also ran fourth in the BetBright Trial Cotswold Chase in both 2015 and 2016. The Giant Bolster took part at The Festival in seven connective years, finishing second, third and fourth in the Timico Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Spectra – Cyber Security Solutions Clarence House Chase

The Grade One Spectra – Cyber Security Solutions Clarence House Chase, re-scheduled following the abandonment of Ascot on January 21, will be run at Cheltenham for a third time on Festival Trials Day.

The prestigious contest, sponsored on Saturday by Spectra Group, was switched to Cheltenham in 2005 during the redevelopment of Ascot, when Well Chief scored, while Sprinter Sacre took the spoils in 2013 after snow forced Ascot to abandon. It has also been run at Warwick (1994), Kempton Park (1997 & 1999) and Sandown Park (2006).

Initially run as a two-mile handicap, the Clarence House Chase was promoted to be a Grade One race for the 2008 renewal. Six horses have won the Clarence House Chase and the Betway Queen Mother Champion Chase at The Festival in the same season – Viking Flagship (1994), Call Equiname (1999), Master Minded (2009), Sprinter Sacre (2013), Sire De Grugy (2014) and Dodging Bullets (2015).

Martha's Son, successful at Ascot in 1995, went on to win the Queen Mother Champion Chase in 1997. Desert Orchid captured the Clarence House Chase in 1989 before going on to be victorious in the Cheltenham Gold Cup at The Festival two months later.

The Clarence House Chase is sponsored by Spectra Group, a leading international provider to Defence & Security, Public and Commercial organisations of secure Voice and Data networks and Satellite communications. Simon Davies, CEO, Spectra Group (UK) Ltd, commented: "Spectra Cyber Security Solutions is delighted to be sponsoring the rescheduled Grade One Spectra – Cyber Security Solutions Clarence House Chase at Cheltenham this Saturday. The race is always competitive as two-mile chasers complete their preparations ahead of The Festival and, as this is Spectra's first sponsorship at the home of jump racing, I am really looking forward to Saturday."

Ian Renton, Regional Director of the south west region of The Jockey Club, added: "I am delighted that we have been able to work with the BHA to reschedule the Clarence House Chase to Cheltenham this Saturday, as part of Festival Trials Day and that Spectra Group will be sponsoring the race, the first sponsorship under this brand."
