

Leading trainers and owners at The Festival after Day Three

Willie Mullins is now the leading trainer of all-time at The Festival, as a double on St Patrick's Thursday saw his total climb to 61 winners since his first success back in 1995.

Mullins narrowly heads the standing for The Irish Independent Leading Trainer Award in 2018, with seven winners over the first three days. Fellow Irish handler Gordon Elliott, who enjoyed a treble on St Patrick's Thursday, is currently lying in second place with six winners.

Mullins' own record number of winners at The Festival is eight, achieved in 2015. Today he is chasing a first Timico Cheltenham Gold Cup victory – a race he has saddled the runner-up in six times.

The Irish Independent Leading Trainer Award is decided on the number of winners trained over the four days. If there is a tie, it will go down to the number of second places. If there is still a tie, the number of third places will be taken into account and the award will be shared if there remains a tie after that.
