Shalom, Rav

Dear all,

In October, following the situation with Harvey

Weinstein, a campaign unfolded where individuals (mostly women) who had been sexually harassed, assaulted, and more, took to social media and wrote #metoo. Some have disclosed details about what happened. Others have written about the emotional impact. Many courageously wrote #metoo with no commentary.

I was numb when I realized the scope of this plague. Sexual assault and harassment does not discriminate. On my Facebook feed, I read stories from high school teens to retired professionals. Educational credentials and financial net worth are not factors. Everyone, EVERYONE can be a target.

Jewish values teach the following:

- 1) Our bodies are holy sanctuaries, and so we must treat our own selves with dignity. And we should tolerate someone else desecrating our sacred space.
- 2) We are created in God's image, and we therefore have a responsibility to seek the Divine in every human being. We can't treat others like garbage.
- 3) We cannot stand by idly when those around us are being hurt. Even if we aren't directly involved in a situation, when we see something wrong, we need to step in.

So we need to listen. We need to respond. And we need to take an active role when unacceptable circumstances are normalized because of silence.

Speak up. Speak out. And speak often.

With love and shalom,

Rabbi Zach Shapiro

Cantor's Corner

The holiday of Chanukah brings in a ray of light just when we need it. As the days get shorter and the nights grow longer, we celebrate the miracle of light and freedom for 8 days. In the midst of the darkness, we light our Chanukah candles and celebrate our freedom from oppression and relish in the light our candles bring us.

The beautiful voices of our three choirs at Temple Akiba are like these rays of light. We are so fortunate to have a dedicated group of people whose voices lift us up throughout the year. Our adult choir sings on the second Friday of each month. Many of these incredible souls have been singing in the choir for over 10 years, some for over 40 years! The voices of our amazing adults enhances our Shabbat services each month and each year during the High Holy Days.

The sweet voices of our Junior Choir also bring a ray of light to this congregation. The 4th – 6th graders help to lead our Rosh Hashanah family services and contribute their beautiful voices to our Yom Kippur Services and Shabbat services throughout the year. Many of the same children put smiles on our faces with their performance in our Purim Shpiels each year.

Although only in its second year of existence, our Cantor's Chanters has become an integral part of our High Holy Day and Shabbat worship. Our teen choir consisting of 7th – 12th graders made a beautiful impact on our Rosh Hashanah morning and Yom Kippur afternoon services for the past 2 years. The poise and beauty of these young voices is astounding.

Each voice in our Adult Choir, Junior Choir and Cantor's Chanters lightens up our service, brightens our congregation and illuminates the world. I am so grateful to every dedicated soul in these groups and honored to have the opportunity to sing with them.

May your life be filled with light and love in this holiday season.

Happy Chanukah!!

Cantor Lonee Frailich

President's Message

The Temple Akiba High Holy Day Services this year were particularly special for me. Maybe it was because after 35 years, it was my first as President of the Temple... but I think it was more than that. It was because since becoming President, I have learned so much more about what makes our Temple so great. I've become much closer with our clergy and better understand that special relationship they have with our members and how they positively impact so many lives.

I've also worked closer with the various departments of our Temple, and now have even more respect and appreciation towards all the hard work that goes into running and supporting our great programs. This year's services also brought a higher level of spiritual meaning and reinforcement of why Temple Akiba is so important to our community as the center of all our Jewish lives and activities.

I want to thank all those who made our services so grand including Rabbi Shapiro and Cantor Frailich, Mary Lou Basaraba and our choirs (all three of them), Carol and Ira Diamond for coordinating the entire proceedings, David Hauptman, Ray and Matthew Martin, Brad and Elijah Herman, Amram Hassan, and everyone else who contributed towards making it so special.

During the High Holy Day Services, you were introduced to several of our Executive Board Members, Jeff Reynolds, Vice President of Education, Scott Markowitz, Vice President of Extensions, and Elizabeth Zlotowitz, Vice President of Membership. They talked about their reasons for being a Temple Akiba Board Member and what their goals and aspirations are toward making our future strong. We hope they inspired some of you to want to become more involved and possibly even join them as a Board Member and help shape our destination.

The running of the Temple takes not only a tremendous effort by our volunteers but also considerable costs that can only come from our supporters. It is timely that the tax year-end is closing in on us and its time to do your tax planning. Making a donation to Temple Akiba is one great way to lower your tax bill and, at the same time, contribute to our remarkable community. We have some very creative ways for you to make your commitment that will save you considerable tax dollars. Just call our Executive Director, Amram Hassan, and he will discuss these opportunities with you.

HAPPY CHANUKAH EVERYONE

Michael Bauer

Middah of the Month

Silence / Sh'tikah

In Hebrew, the word for Silence is Sh'tikah.

Rabbi Lefin of Satanov, the author of the Mussar text Cheshbon HaNefesh, wrote: "Before you open your mouth, be silent and reflect:

"What benefit will my speech bring me or others?"

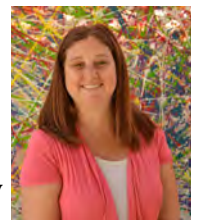

The dictionary defines silence as quietness, not speaking, or ignoring something. Jewish perspective tells us something slightly different. When we are silent, we are not ignoring anything. Our intentional silence allows us to listen and hear. We all need moments of silence from the busy world around us - silence from technology, social interactions, and all that is distracting to us. In silence we can begin to listen to greater things, like our hearts and our souls. Silence and speech are both powerful devices that are neither good nor bad. They are each appropriate at different times. There are times when we should not be silent. Examples of those times are when someone is counting on us to speak up and defend them, or someone is depending on our contribution to a conversation. Sometimes we speak when our words do not benefit others and may even cause harm. As adults, we remember from childhood the damage words can cause. When should we teach our children to practice the middah (value) of silence?

1. When they are going to say something that will hurt another person's feelings.
2. When they are going to talk about another person.
3. When they don't know what to say. If a friend is sad or upset, just being with them is the most important thing.
4. When it's their turn to listen. Silence is important in order to be a good listener.
5. When they need to pay attention, to learn, to think, or be calm.

When we are silent we can reflect.

Help your children look for all five of these opportunities for silence and take advantage of them. Model a reflective pause before speaking so your children learn to do the same. To practice, use only positive words when communicating about a situation or person. Practice keeping silent when harmful speech comes to mind. Listen to others more than speaking out loud. Remember, speech is good when it is helpful to another person. With practice we can learn when it is best to speak and when it is best to remain silent.

Randee Bishoff, Director of Education

A Message from our Executive Director, Amram Hassan

Friends,

It's hard to believe the High Holy Days are over and now we are about to close the calendar year 2017. If you attended the High Holy Day Services, you know how wonderful they were. I have to admit I did not attend these services but I was able to watch the streaming online after the Holy Days. I'm sure you're well aware, that all the arrangements for these Services are organized by Temple volunteers led by our High Holy Day Chair, Ira Diamond and the Vice President Religious Practices, Carol Diamond. The next time you see them thank them for everything they do for the Temple. Of course it goes without saying that there're many more volunteers, but if I begin naming them all I'm sure I will miss someone, I'm therefore ending it here by saying Thank You ALL.

You're also aware that over the summer the Temple fiscal year ends and a new one begins. Which translates to a start of a new membership year. Not to be repetitive, but there're many volunteers involved in this Committee as well - from the designing of the sign-up form to making sure all the data is entered correctly and anything in-between. Again I know I'm being repetitive and this article is getting boring/exciting (depends on how you see things), however, there's one individual that just keeps ticking on membership stuff, Elizabeth Zlotowitz. From making sure that people renew their membership, planning get-togethers with potential members, to a welcome dinner for new members and organizing the gift to hand out to all new members.

The truth to the matter is that in some way or another you all do what you can for the Temple, whether it's for the ECC, Religious School, Youth programming, Sisterhood, Men's Group or any event/program that we have.

Let's now look at what's ahead. By the time you receive this Bulletin "Viva Las Akiba" Casino Night is about to happen or just happened. The "8th Annual Gala" is also coming up and that's on February 10, 2018. Please make sure you either respond to the invitation or just go online and sign up: www.templeakiba.net. I assure you its a dinner where we sit with friends, have lots of fun and we honor well deserving people who, by the way, are our friends as well. So join us, don't wait any longer to sign up. I have attended over 20 of these Gala's, and even though I have worked most of them, I've had a great time. Let me help with your decision - if you attend the Gala, while you're there, come see me, let's have a drink, on me.

Finally, I want to thank the staff at the Temple What can I say you don't already know, they are just great people to work with. Don't be a stranger, if you have some time drop into the office and just say hi.

L'hitraot, Amram

TZEDAKAH

Members and friends of Temple Akiba have chosen to honor the memories of loved ones and to express their condolences to bereaved families by making contributions to the Yahrzeit and other Temple funds. In addition, one can make donations to the Temple to honor birthdays, a marriage, a baby naming, a conversion, the privilege of sitting on the bima, for having an aliya, or for any other blessed occasion.

OUTREACH

As part of our commitment to the HIAS Welcome Campaign, Temple Akiba was honored to co-host a Vigil for the SS St. Louis at the Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust. Together with IKAR, University Synagogue, Temple Isaiah, and others, we gathered to mourn the lives lost when the SS St. Louis was turned away from the United States borders in 1939, and took a public stand for refugees to send a message that history must not be allowed to repeat itself. Stay tuned for future events and activities that are part of the HIAS Welcome Campaign.

Happy Happy Chanukah!

This year, we kindle the first candle of Chanukah on Tuesday night, December 12th and the last candle on Tuesday night, December 19th.

Candles are added to the Chanukiah from right to left but are kindled from left to right. The newest candle is lit first. (On the Shabbat of Chanukah, kindle the Chanukah lights first and then the Shabbat candles.) Light the Shamash - the helper candle set higher or lower than all the rest of the candles - first using it to kindle the rest of the Chanukah lights; say or sing:

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who hallows us with mitzvot, commanding us to kindle the Chanukah lights.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who performed wondrous deeds for our ancestors in days of old, at this season.

On the First Night only we add:

Baruch atah, Adonai, Eloheinu Melech haolam, shehecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higianu laz'man hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.
