Dear Temple Akiba,

On May 30, five extraordinary tenth graders will ascend the Bimah, confirming their place as a link in the chain of Judaism. This Confirmation Ceremony, whose roots began nearly 200 years ago in Germany, expanded when Reform Judaism took root in the United States. In the 20th century, it replaced the Bar Mitzvah and was moved from 13 years of age to 15, allowing deeper learning to take place. It also created an opportunity for both boys and girls to participate in a life-cycle once reserved only for boys. While Bar Mitzvah was for the individual, Confirmation was for the entire class, usually occurring on the Festival of Shavuot.

For a while, young Reform Jews became Confirmands without becoming B'nei Mitzvah. But over time, a nostalgic yearning for the ancient ceremony pulled at the heartstrings of many Jewish families. And so, the Bar Mitzvah was re-established, and by the 1950's and 1960's, the Bat Mitzvah was introduced.

Through it all, Confirmation has remained a time-honored life-moment.

At Temple Akiba, as part of the Confirmation year, we discuss comparative religion. We debate God and science as well as the role of commandments. We discover how Judaism informs our lives. We share things about Judaism that make us uncomfortable. We discover ways to make Judaism relevant in our lives.

The highlight of our year was our trip to Washington D.C., where we joined 400 other Reform Jewish youth in a program called "L'taken," run by the Religious Action Center. We learned about the Reform Jewish perspectives on:

Homelessness
Gun Violence
Immigration Reform
Reproductive Right
Education
Health Care
LGBTQ rights
And much, much more

At the end of the weekend, we all went to Capitol Hill, where we lobbied before our elected officials. Each of us came away knowing that our voices truly make a difference.

We hope you join us on May 30 to at our Confirmation/ Shavuot Service to learn how Judaism is part of their lives - and ultimately how it is part of ours as well!

With love and shalom,
Rabbi Zach Shapiro
Our Light Shines Brighter. Together.

Cantor's Corner

The beautiful voices of 6 teenagers acted as Shaliach Tziborim, emissaries of prayer, engaging the congregation in the ancient and modern melodies of our tradition.

Our incredible Cantor's Chanter led the congregation in an unforgettable evening of prayer and song at their service in March.

I created Cantor's Chanter this year for many reasons. We have a number of Middle School and High School aged kids with beautiful voices that were no longer able to participate in Junior Choir because they graduated from our Religious School. I wanted to continue to teach them new and innovative Jewish music and continue their connection to Jewish music and the Temple in general. While many of our members attend our High School program, some come just for Cantor's Chanter rehearsals and services. This is their connecting point to Judaism.

Another goal of this chorus is to teach the next generation what it means to be a Cantor. The young adults that participated in this service created, planned, rehearsed and held the service in the same manner as a Cantor. They led every prayer in the service from start to finish.

We have such talented and poised kids here at Temple Akiba.

It is such an honor for me to mentor them in this journey.

Libby Polksky, Max Potruch, Layla Starr-Wiener, Barah Burns, Natalie Glassman, Maya August.

L'Shalom,

Cantor Lonee Frailich

President's Message

I am honored to have served as President of Temple Akiba the past four years. I am so fortunate to have been supported by outstanding Board members and staff. Our Temple Akiba community has realized so many goals and I extend my thanks to all who have provided the needed leadership. It has been inspiring to have been part of the effort. Our youth education programs, camps, adult education opportunities, and our Sisterhood and Men's Group activities have successfully filled Temple Akiba with the spirit – ruach – that is the foundation of Akiba. I specifically thank the Board Members, Committee Members, Rabbi Zach, Cantor Lonee, Amram, Randee and all of our staff for their leadership, support, and hard work.

Temple Akiba has several activities planned that we hope you will be able to enjoy and support. May 7 is the Temple-wide Mitzvah Day; May 17 at 7:30 PM is the Congregational Meeting; and May 30, Erev Shavuot, is our Confirmation Service. Also, planning is well underway for our camp programs this summer starting in June. Please check the Temple calendar and take part in as many activities as you can.

Another way to make a contribution to the Temple is by transferring securities directly to the Temple. The donation is the total of the face value of the securities and you avoid taxes on any gains. The value of the securities being donated is based upon the price on the date of transfer. Please contact Amram who can help facilitate this transfer. Temple Akiba needs your help to stay strong now as well as in the future. Please give of your time, resources and funds until it feels good! Please call me or email me if you can volunteer.

Temple Akiba, Our Light Shines Brighter – Together!

L'Shalom,

Robert G. "Bob" Knopf

Middah of the Month

Generosity / Nedivut

"That which we give to another person is never lost." – Rabbi Eliyahu Dessler

Judaism teaches us that when we open our hearts and give generously to others we not only help the other person, but consequently nurture our own souls. Judaism values many ways of generosity including hospitality, greeting others with a pleasant face, and being generous by giving tzedakah, charity. The word tzedakah comes from the Hebrew root tzedek meaning justice. All children understand the concept of justice. "That's not fair!" is something we often hear from young ones. We can help our children to understand that the best way to have more justice is to share generously what we have with others. We can share food, water, clothing, shelter, education and more. The adage that actions speak louder than words is true. Modeling charitable giving is the most effective way for parents to communicate this value to children.

So if we want to model generosity, it is important for us to have a regular practice of giving. It is also important for us to talk with our children about what they are giving and why. Teaching how to share is one of the first values that we as parents and teachers encourage in our children. We can encourage them to give in ways that they can relate to, for example, donating personal items like toys and clothes for children who don't have them, or food for people who are hungry. A great family project is to go to the grocery store with your children to buy extra food for a local food pantry, a homeless shelter, a collection at school, temple. When we do that, we can also speak with children about nutrition and what meals should include. When children receive money for a gift, we can encourage them to give some of it to tzedakah.

All these activities can set the foundation for children's growth as philanthropic individuals. Judaism uses time and ritual to sanctify the ordinary. At school children have a time and ritual for giving tzedakah. We can also create a time and ritual at home for giving tzedakah by making a Tzedakah Box or even a collection of boxes each intended for specific giving. Family is the primary character-building force in a child's life. Working together we can nurture children and help develop good character founded in Jewish values.

Director of Education

AKIBA DAY CAMP

The Sun is Shining

As the school year begins to wind down, and the days get longer, one thing becomes clearer: CAMP SEASON IS UPON US!

As a parent, it seems that there are endless possibilities for enrichment, learning and fun for our kids during the summer months. As a Jewish Parent, the answer is obvious, Jewish Summer Camp!

Sending your children to Jewish Summer Camp has proven time and time again that it is critical in strengthening young Jewish identities. The experiential yet informal education provided by summer camp also creates long lasting Jewish bonds. At camp, children stretch their Jewish muscles by growing and exploring things they otherwise wouldn't have a chance to explore.

We have an UNBELIEVABLE summer planned at Akiba Day Camp! Fun field trips every week plus swimming twice a week! Come join us, tell all of your friends, and be part of the fun!

Email:
akibadaycamp@templeakiba.net for more details!

Warmly,

Robyn Altman
Day Camp Director

CAMP AKIBA & YOUTH

Shalom Temple Akiba Members, Friends & Family,

As we move into the last stretch of this school year, I am reminded of how many wonderful events our Temple Akiba Youth has enjoyed and about the fabulous summer programs ahead of us. This time of year also brings a lot of change and transition.

TASTY has been led by our teen board who include Tess Gording as President, Mason Bromberg as Programming VP, Gabby Altounian as Membership VP, Rebecca Mirvish as Social Action VP, Matthew Martin as Religious and Cultural VP, Jessica Sample as Communications VP, and Dylan Marshall as Financial VP. Together, this group helped plan and implement a TASTY kick-off picnic, Sukkot movie night poolside, our annual new-member kid-nap,

Jew Year's Eve, ice-skating & a hike on old Nazi grounds in the Santa Monica Mountains. Not to mention, a few fundraisers as well (while balancing up to five AP classes!)

TASTY will be sad to say good bye to our graduating seniors, Tess, Mason, Rebecca, Dylan, Gabby & Alex, but we are so grateful for their time and energy towards our youth programming! Good luck on your next journey!!

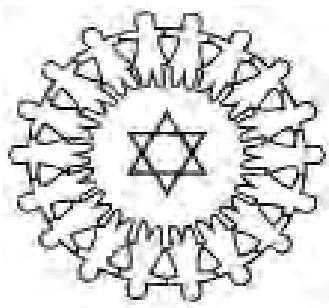

Junior TASTY also enjoyed the kick-off picnic, a trip to the movies, bowling, a Chanukah holiday party, a circus experience at Kinetic Theory & an all-inclusive day at Mulligans!

We hope all of our Temple Akiba Youth can join in our final event on May 5th as the TASTY board leads a Shabbat service and hosts a movie night under the stars, with s'mores of course!

Don't skip a Temple Akiba Youth beat by signing up for Akiba Day and Resident Camp to stay connected all summer long!

L'Shalom,

Leah Penso
Youth and Resident Camp Director

TEMPLE AKIBA SISTERHOOD

Thanks to all who contributed to our Purim Carnival Bake Sale with delicious homemade goodies, funds to purchase more goodies, and especially to those who partook of the goodies. Sisterhood was able to earn over $500 which we were pleased to donate to the Temple.

Our engagement with the sweetness in life was extended to our annual Passover Outreach at Pavilions. Led by Lil Jenkins and Helene Jaffa, we once again shared many Passover desserts, and even more recipes, with many familiar faces from our congregation and our community.

On June 25th we will be going to the Paul Simon exhibit at the Skirball Museum. We will participate in a docent led tour, by our own member Sue Polep, and enjoy lunch in Ziedler's Café. See our flyer in this bulletin and reserve your spot soon.

We continue our volunteer activity at the Lou Colon Children's Health and Wellness Center providing healthy meals as well as interacting with children and their parents. See the flyer in this bulletin for information about how to participate.

Temple Akiba Sisterhood is proud to again be a sponsor of our 11th Annual Mitzvah Day on May 7th. We hope to see many of your faces mingling with ours in this fun and meaningful expression of Tikkun Olam.

Our final Coffee With The Clergy before the summer break takes place on June 6th.

Our next Mah Jongg Tournament is on June 11th.

Sweet Tooth by Ian McEwan

Anything by Ian McEwan is a must READ! This is a departure for the author - the year is 1972, the Cold War (with Communism) is far from over. The elements are a thriller mystery; in the words of a master novelist - you have an excellent novel.

Tuesday, June 20, 2017

White Teeth by Zadie Smith

Debut novel by a gifted writer (age 25). "Magnificent and audacious" are words describing this novel.

The Stranger by Albert Camus

This masterpiece is brader and far more reaching than the senseless murder on a sunny beach. This haunting novel has lasted through all ages.

Social Action - Get Involved

Thank you one and all for participating in the Jewish World Watch Walk to End Genocide. This is our best year of fundraising to help the humanitarian and educational projects of Jewish World Watch including the people of Chad, Darfur, Sudan, South Sudan, The Republic of the Congo, and other refugees and projects of JWW.

As of mid April, when this article went to press, Team Temple Akiba had raised over $3000 through donations to JWW and the Walk to End Genocide. In total, all the Los Angeles teams raised over $90,000, well on their way to the $200,000 goal.

Another project that I encourage you to donate your time and effort to is Habitat for Humanity that is planning to build five modest single family homes in Culver City near Titos Tacos off Washington Blvd. Please contact the local office of Habitat for Humanity and get involved. Some of our members joined volunteers from other synagogues and churches last winter and helped build homes in Montebello. If you can set aside a Sunday, you can help. The contact information is: Jordan Markovic, Faith Relations Coordinator, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles, 310 323 4663 ext. 175. JMarkovic@habitatla.com

Temple Akiba summer camps and other education programs also benefit from your support. Statistics prove that the more Jewish children participate in Jewish camp and education programs, the more they become life long active Jewish adults. Please donate to Temple Akiba camps and other scholarship programs.

If you have ideas or questions about Temple Akiba Social Action Programs, please feel free to contact me.

B'Shalom, Sharlene 310 836 3635 sharlondon@yahoo.com

Gifts & Memorials

"Remember that the happiest people are not those getting more, but those giving more."

-H. Jackson Brown Jr.

What a wonderful way to remember your loved ones. The cost of individual plaques for Temple members is $750 and for those not affiliated it is $1,000. How about participating in what may be the most exciting opportunity - the Sue and Jerry Urfrig Family Memorial Room. With your contribution of $10,000 to the Campaign of Light, your name will be included on the Donor Board in the Memorial Room. The purchaser will have two complimentary plaques reserved for them to be designated with names as they choose.

Temple Akiba Sisterhood Social Action Committee COOKING WITH KIDS - VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY!!

Join Social Action Committee members in the fun as we provide Healthy Cooking and Eating Experiences in the Teaching Kitchen of the Lou Colon Children's Health and Wellness Center

Experienced Sisterhood members will lead the session. Volunteers will help, as they are comfortable, select easy and healthy recipes, demonstrate cooking techniques, assist with prep work and interact with the kids and their parents.

The program aims to:

- Involve the children who are the patients of this Clinic, in a simple, fun and engaging cooking activity while they wait to see their doctors; and,
- Provide children and families with the opportunity to learn about cooking cheap, delicious and healthy meals.

Cooking dates Spring 2017:

Mondays 10-am-noon: April 17th, May 15th, June 12th

Thursdays 2:30-4:30 pm: April 20th, May 18th, June 15th

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED or HAVE QUESTIONS PLEASE CALL OR EMAIL
RENEE MESHUL: (310) 849-1921 or rmeshul@gmail.com

The LOU COLON CHILDRENS HEALTH AND WELLNESS CENTER is part of the Venice Family Clinic and is located at 4700 Inglewood Boulevard corner of Braddock Avenue.

Social Action Committee Members: Verna Erez, Tricia Flumenbaum, Jeanne Marmalefsky, Helene Jaffa, Renee Meshul and Sue Polep

This year the Purim carnival was a HUGE success!!

Our community shines brighter when we all come together to make things happen and we had tremendous support from all of you!

A big thank you to Scott Markowitz and Anita Markowitz for doing EVERYTHING AUCTION. Thank you to Ray Martin, Josh Weissman, Howard Shabsis, and Wendy Shabsis for cooking up so much delicious Nosh among everything else that you did!

Thank you to Cathy Penso for your advice and help. Thank you to Stefanie Cutler for your beautiful decorations. Thank you to Carol Diamond, Tom and Cheryl Schlendering, Laura Oakley, Karin Herman, Jason Altman, Randee Bishoff, Rachel Block, Carly Altman, Paulene Reed, Aillene Bubis, Denise Sample, Cindy and Barry Cohen, Jaime Salzman, Bob Knopf, Sunny Martin, the Sisterhood, Amram Hassan, Gaby's Express, the Akiba Angels, all of the religious school teachers, and TO ALL OF YOU!

We couldn't have had this much fun without our community!!
