

For AIA-LRGV News Letter

Associates Degree / Intern Architect

McAllen architectural firm is accepting job applications for Associates Degree / Intern Architect. Applicant must have 0 to 4 years of experience and must be proficient in the following computer applications: AutoCAD, Revit, Sketchup, Photoshop, and Windows applications.

The job description includes assisting in various projects including schools, retail, office, religious and municipal buildings. Job role also includes design production in all phases of design. Excellent health insurance, benefits and great working environment. Salary based upon skill and abilities. Email resumes to mikea@rofainc.com No phone calls please.

Intern Architect

McAllen architectural firm is accepting job applications for Intern Architect. Applicant must have 5 to 10 years of experience and must be proficient AutoCAD, Revit, Sketchup, Photoshop, and Windows applications.

The job description includes assisting in various projects including schools, retail, office, religious and municipal buildings. Job role also includes design production and project management in all phases of design. Excellent health insurance, benefits and great working environment. Salary based upon skill and abilities. Email resumes to mikea@rofainc.com No phone calls please.

Construction Administrator

McAllen architectural firm is accepting job applications for Construction Administrator. Applicant must have 5 to 10 years construction and/or architectural working experience. It is preferable but not mandatory that Applicant be proficient AutoCAD, Revit, Photoshop, Owner/Insite and Windows Office applications. Architectural and/or Construction degree preferred but not mandatory.

The job description includes managing and administering various projects including schools, retail, office, religious and municipal buildings, during the construction administration phase. Excellent health insurance, benefits and great working environment. Salary based upon skill and abilities. Email resumes to mikea@rofainc.com No phone calls please.