Heroes Parade - Central PA 4th Fest in State College

7/4/2017 2:00 PM

<http://raystown.org/events/heroes-parade-central-pa-4th-fest-2017.html>

State College

The 5th annual Parade of Heroes adds to the already well-established day of family-friendly-fun festivities celebrating our nation birth. The Parade of Heroes is Tuesday, July 4th, 2017 " beginning in front of the State College Municipal Building at 2:00pm. The parade route will travel through downtown State College, across the PSU campus and end at the Bryce Jordan Center. The Parade of Heroes celebrates our community and its people " emergency services, community groups, the arts, and many more. It is also the platform utilized to publicly thank and recognize the heroes of Central Pennsylvania. The heroes selected to participate in the parade will receive a commemorative plaque and be transported individually in vehicles through the parade route with their name 's and town 's highlighted on banners alongside the vehicle. Nominees not selected to be in the parade will receive honorable mentions and a certificate thanking them for their service to their community and country. The start of the Heroes Parade will coincide with the ringing of bells. Across the nation, community churches are being encouraged to ring their bells on July 4th to help remind people that this is a day to commemorate and remember the blessings we enjoy here in America. Although the origin of this tradition is difficult to establish, it may go back to the ringing of church bells in Boston to alert people to the British advance, or to the inscription on the Liberty Bell. The inscription is from Leviticus 25:10 and reads, Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof. Along this line, on July 4th, we are asking the State College area churches to ring their bells at 2:00 PM. We hope you will join us and let freedom ring this holiday. Thank you.

<http://raystown.org/events/concerts-on-the-quad-chip-lovett.html>

1700 Moore Street Huntingdon 814-643-6220

Chip Lovett will bring his jazz keyboard to the Concerts of the Quad music series. The Huntingdon County Arts Council and Juniata College once again are bringing music to the community with our Concerts on the Quad music series. Chip Lovett was raised in Brooklyn, New York and was exposed musically by playing clarinet in elementary school and trumpet in Junior high school. During his junior year at Juniata College located in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania in 1975, he began to explore a different instrument, the piano, due to listening to jazz legends such as Oscar Peterson, Chick Corea and Herbie Hancock, his main musical influences even today. Chip received individual piano lessons for three years and then created Bryne/ Lovett, a jazz saxophone/ keyboard duo which subsequently led to the creation of Urban Fusion, a fusion jazz band which he started with three other members in State College Pennsylvania. As a solo keyboard artist, Chip has performed in the Huntingdon County area at weddings, fine dining establishments and has collaborated with other musicians performing for the Huntingdon Historical Society. Chip also performed with Urban Fusion at the Juneteenth Celebration in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania for the last seven years. Chip was also the guest pianist performing jazz standards for the Juniata College Jazz band in 2013. Chip has recorded duo- jazz projects, performs trio jazz piano and has served as musical director and arranger for numerous jazz, R&B and vocal groups in the State College area. Bring your lawn chairs, your blankets, picnic supplies and your friends and family to the Juniata College quad, in front of the Halbritter Center for the Performing Arts. These outdoor concerts are free, but donations appreciate.
