

Hunterdon County Library

Upcoming Events

June 2018

Libraries Rock! Adult Summer Reading Club 2018 Visit www.hclibrary.us/asrc.htm to sign up and get all the details. Adults: share book favorites, win gift cards for yummy treats, and join fellow-readers on 8/30 for fun, games & prizes.

June closings: Headquarters Library in Flemington will be closed on Sundays for the summer beginning Sunday 6/17.

Hunterdon County Library Headquarters

314 State Rt. 12 Building #3, Flemington, NJ 08822

To reserve a place for programs at Headquarters, you may respond to this email or call 908-788-1434. If you respond by email, please include: program name, your name and phone number, and # of people coming.

Lake Solitude and the Forge: a Hunterdon 300th event Sunday 6/3 @ 2 pm. Reservations at www.hunterdon300th.org Lake Solitude was built in 1858 by the Taylor Iron and Steel Company, to provide hydro-electric power to the plant.

Knitting Group Knitters & crocheters: drop in on the Lower Level, Mondays 6/4, 11, 18 & 25, 10-11:30 am.

Meet local author Maryann McFadden Wednesday 6/6 @ 7 pm
This 4th novel: The Cemetery Keeper's Wife, blends fact & fiction, shame & secrecy, of 2 women separated by a century.

Film: Lady Bird Thursday 6/7 @ 6 pm (R) An artistically inclined 17-year old California girl comes of age in 2002, with quiet support from her ever-patient mother.

Outdoor Art Show & Sale Presented by the Friends of HCL. Saturday 6/9 from 10 am to 3 pm. (Rain date: Sat. 6/16) Peruse the work of 75 talented local artists & enjoy Marshalls Dixieland Band. Cash prizes awarded and the art is for sale.

Brain Games: Keep the Mind Sharp with Michael Salas of Horizon-BCBSNJ Tuesday 6/12 @ 7 pm
Increase memory with games to stimulate different areas of your brain; and activities to keep this master organ healthy.

Spring Activities of the Lenape in Hunterdon: a Hunterdon 300th event Tuesday 6/19 @ 7 pm.
Our local Native Americans were busy fishing, hunting, gathering & celebrating. Reservations at www.hunterdon300th.org

Musical History of the Fabulous 50s by Joey G. Wednesday 6/20 @ 7 pm

Enjoy a lively musical trip from Dino to Doo Wop as this Broadway star shares anecdotes about the singers & their times.

Film: The Post (PG-13) Thursday 6/28 @ 6 pm

Based on true events: The first US female newspaper publisher and her veteran editor battle the US government to reveal a cover-up.

Friends of HCL Book Club: What is the What by Dave Eggers Thursday 6/28 @ 7 pm

Based on the life of Valentino Deng who, at age 7, was forced to trek across 3 countries with thousands of other “Lost Boys” of Sudan. When he finally settled in the US, he found a life of promise, but also heartache and challenge.

Book Discussion: Fishbowl by Bradley Somers Friday 6/29 @ 10 am

As Ian the goldfish falls from his 27th floor balcony, he speculates on the lives and decisions of the people he passes.

Games Get ready for summer board games challenges with your family & friends downstairs in the Bookmark Café.

North County Branch Library

65 Halstead St., Clinton, NJ 08809

To reserve a place for programs at NCB, you may respond to this email or call 908-730-6135. If you respond by email, please include: program name, your name and phone number, and # of people coming.

Scrabble drop in Fridays June 1, 8, 15, 22 & 29 at 1 pm

A fun way to build vocabulary & spelling skills and amaze your friends with unusual new words.

Film: The Shape of Water Friday 6/1 (captioned) and Saturday 6/2, both @ 2 pm (R)

At a secret government laboratory in the 1960s, a lonely, mute janitor befriends a captive amphibious creature.

North County Fiber Artists Drop in and meet fellow-crafters. Tuesdays 6/5 & 6/19 @ 7 pm

Work on your current needlework project with other stitchers while you chat and share anecdotes & tricks of the trades.

Tell Me Your Dream with Susan Carrara Private $\frac{1}{2}$ hr. sessions Wed. 6/6 2-4 pm OR Thurs. 6/21 6:30-8:30 pm

Brainstorm your life's dream and map out your route with the all right steps, in the right order, to achieve success.

Sierra Club presents: Tips for Summer Hiking, Camping & Adventures with Angela DeSapio Wed. 6/6 @ 7 pm

Find the perfect trail for any age & experience level; try overnights, photography hikes and even pet-friendly camping.

Book Discussion: The Husband's Secret by Liane Moriarty Tuesday 6/12 @ 7 pm

Cecilia finds a letter that destroys her marriage; Tess's husband runs off with her cousin; Tess moves in with her former boyfriend Connor; Rachel believes school teacher Connor is her daughter's killer. What's the connection?

English Conversation for Speakers of Other Languages Wednesdays 6/13 and 6/27, 7 to 8 pm.

Drop in and chat about anything you like with other adults in a friendly, relaxed, small group.

The Happy Fits Concert Calvin Langman on classical cello and Ross Montieth on rock guitar. Thursday 6/14 @ 7 pm. The popular local duo's unique, folky, energetic sound is inspired by the fields and farms of their native Hunterdon County.

Film: Lady Bird Friday 6/15 (captioned) @ 2 pm (R)

An artistically inclined 17-year old California girl comes of age in 2002, with quiet support from her ever-patient mother.

Beginners EZ Tai Chi with Tom Tague of Skylands Energy Arts Saturday 6/16. Choose either 9:30 am or 11 am. Try this gentle exercise that helps balance, circulation & mobility, while lowering stress & pain. Suitable for all ages.

Film: Game Night Saturday 6/16 @ 2 pm (R)

At their regular Game Night, 6 competitive adult friends find themselves entangled in a real-life mystery.

Breaking Bread With Wildlife: Edible Native Plants for Your Garden NJ Native Plant Society Tuesday 6/19 @ 7 pm. Rachel Mackow of Wild Ridge Plants describes how to restore & use her favorite sustaining species, & who needs them.

Maximize Your Social Security Benefits - James Manno of Cornerstone Financial Partners Thursday 6/21 @ 7 pm Advanced planning is essential! Find out now about: the 3 new rule sets, best time to file, how your SS is taxed & more.

Gardens of Cornwall & Devon in June by Judy & Jim Snow – a Garden Club event Tuesday 6/26 @ 2:30 pm

A relaxing virtual tour of fabulous garden estates like Heligan & Trebah; plus a few unique, smaller, private gems.

HR and Payroll Outsourcing: a SCORE Seminar presented by Jeremy Knapp from Paychex. Thursday 6/28 @ 7 pm Small business owners: are you overwhelmed with paperwork? Get it done and get back to the job you were meant to do.

Free Seed Exchange Upstairs in the Reference Department. June is prime planting time for late summer/fall yields. Pick out some new varieties to try, and share your extra seeds from 2016, 2017 & 2018 with fellow gardeners.

June exhibits at NCB

DISPLAY CASES

Wearable Art – It's Off the Wall! by Ringoes artist Charles Miller

The photography of this award-winning multi-media artist inspired the designs of these garments and accessories.

ART SHOW

Wax Works by mixed-media artist, author and photographer Heidi Sussman

Photos + hot wax = photo encaustics. These architectural abstracts began as building facades as ancient as Pompeii.

STAIR RAILING DISPLAY

Harley Davidson Quilt created by artist & quilter Nancy Roche

This 7.5'x 4.5' modern quilt consists of 30 different t-shirts of a die-hard Harley fan. Check out the back!

South County Branch Library

1432 Route 179, Unit B-1, Lambertville, NJ 08530

To register for programs at SCB, call 609-773-0032

Book Discussion: Defending Jacob by William Landay Call to reserve a book. Tues. 6/19 @ 7:30 pm

An attorney faces a wrenching decision when the facts increasingly suggest his 14-year-old son is guilty of murder.

For more information about any of these programs, visit the Library website at www.hclibrary.us.