

COMMUNITY MEETING

STORM WATER MANAGEMENT STUDY UPPER MONTCLAIR BASIN

The City and County of Denver and the Urban Drainage and Flood Control District are studying flood and storm water management in the Upper Montclair Basin. Join the community conversation with the goal of identifying near and long term storm water solutions, as well as ways to build neighborhood flood resiliency.

Pick a date and location most convenient for you. The presented material will be the same at all three meetings.

WHERE?

Montview Presbyterian Church
1980 Dahlia Street
Gallery Room (Basement Level)

Palmer Elementary School
995 Grape Street
Learning Lab, Room 119

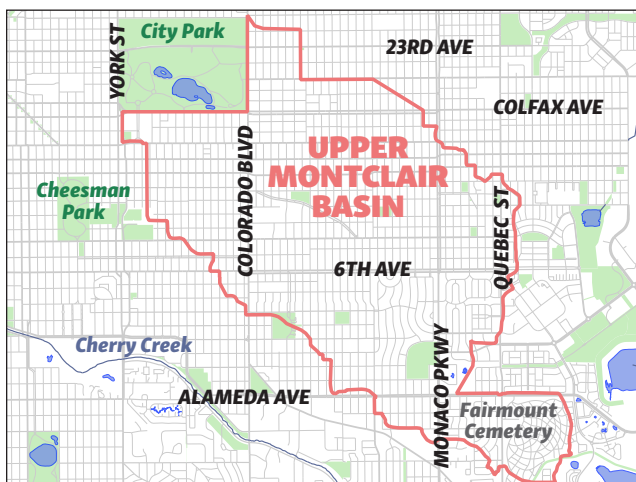

The Art Gym
1460 Leyden Street

WHEN?

Thursday, February 23
5:30 - 7:00 PM

Wednesday, March 1
5:30 - 7:00 PM

Thursday, March 2
5:30 - 7:00 PM

STUDY AREA

AGENDA

Check In
5:30 - 5:45 PM

Presentation
5:45 - 6:00 PM

Workshop
6:00 - 7:00 PM

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Beth Vogelsang, OV Consulting
303.589.5651
beth@ovllc.com

PROJECT PARTNERS:

DENVER
THE MILE HIGH CITY

