Discover Spreepark: Berlin's Abandoned Amusement Park

Monday 25th September

3.00 PM: Meetup at EAS Fair Entrance

3.50 PM: Meetup at Spreepark (if you can find it)

In Berlin for EAS? On the day before the opening of the showfloor we will go on a discovery tour into Berlin's (in)famous abandoned Spreepark.

Study what years of decay do to a site and learn about the city's future plans with the park and its restoration efforts.

As the entrance to the park is rather hidden in the woods, we will meet at 3 PM at the Berlin Messe exhibition center entrance and commute (transfer is at own cost) from there to the park.

Admission: NextGen: $15 | Members: $25

Spaces are very limited so you may be waitlisted.

A liability waiver needs to be signed at the entrance, only private photography is allowed.

Please wear walking shoes this area has not been fully maintained for years so the surfaces are uneven; there are no facilities of any kind once we have reached the entrance.
