

Train to be a volunteer in Petersburg!

Comfort Zone Camp

in collaboration with Crater Community Hospice!

Family Grief Program for Grieving Youth & Kin

An afternoon filled with fun, connection, and healing for the entire family!

Grieve, Heal & Grow

Comfort Zone Camp is a nonprofit organization that holds one-day family, school, community, and 3-day resiliency-building programs for youth who have experienced the death of a parent, guardian, or sibling.

You are not alone

Comfort Zone provides a place where bereaved children and young adults can break the isolation a death often brings, build lasting friendships, and learn coping skills for their daily lives.

Comfort Zone provides:

- A place to share stories and feelings
- Validation from peers
- Opportunities to honor those who died
- Coping tools
- A FUN environment

This program is 100% free of charge, thanks to the partnership with Crater Community Hospice.

Volunteers needed for the Petersburg Family Program on Saturday, May 12th?

Volunteers provide needed support to children and families in a variety of roles. Some of the ways you can contribute as a volunteer are as follows:

- Big Buddies – 1:1 mentor support for child and/or family
- Healing Circle Leaders - clinically trained volunteers who facilitate breakout sessions for children and/or their parents and caregivers.
- Support Volunteers assist a Family Program through logistical support
- Child Care Support is needed when a family brings young children with them.
- Photographers capture the day on behalf of Comfort Zone Camp.

Training Session Date & Time

Saturday, March 3, 2018
9:00am-3:00pm

Location

Crater Community Hospice
3916 S Crater Rd
Petersburg, VA 23805

For more information contact: Jessi Schmale 804-282-2192 or jschmale@comfortzonecamp.org
Or Patti Cox (804) 840-6454 or pcox@cratercommunityhospice.org