From Our Rector

Christ is risen! Alleluia. Alleluia. We made it to the season of Resurrection.

Gerard Manley Hopkins said we need to, “Let Christ "Easter in us."” Shaking off whatever chains are trying to hold us and living freely with courage and hope is to let Christ Easter in us. A resurrected life is our calling. When we realize that NOTHING can separate us from God’s love, and no pain or loss is permanent, it frees us to do the right thing. It is easier to put others before self and to be a servant to those in need when we know we are all part of the same family in God’s eyes. A present sacrifice that provides a better future for our children and grandchildren makes sense when I see my connection even to people yet unborn. A resurrected life sees this world as God’s creation. We are stewards given a precious gift to protect and treat with care. Thank God for God’s work of redemption.

Golf

I’m not a very good golfer. But I am so looking forward to our second ODEC golf tournament on Friday, 2 June. When I do get out with friends for the day and get some real exercise, it is always good for my body and my soul. It helps that I’m not good enough to worry about my score! This year our tourney will be one of those fun days. It is also a fundraiser for the J2A ministry and specifically for the pilgrimage our young people will take in June 2018. So I’ll have a good time for a great cause. The first tourney was a lot of fun, and I suspect this year will be as well. We need more of you to sign up so we can make the day even more fun. If you don’t have a foursome, just sign up individually and we’ll pair everyone.

Calling all businesses!

The primary way the golf tournament raises funds is through businesses sponsoring holes for the day (or families going together to do so). Hole sponsors get signs on the holes as advertising or promotion. If you work somewhere that promotes locally, please see if your business might consider us. If you have a close connection to someone who owns a business or if there is a local restaurant you frequent, see if they might sponsor us (or at least give some gift certificates). We’ve gotten commitments for about half the holes, so there are plenty of opportunities to see your name on the course!

Pat

In my short “RIP” announcement last night, I could only say a few words about my friend, Pat Wilson. Pat died Tuesday evening after a short battle with cancer. Her time was short because Pat (as we know she could) was able to ignore lots of pain and symptoms that might have brought me to my knees. So, when diagnosed, the cancer was very advanced.

In just 24 hours since I sent out the announcement, I have had tons of emails and read probably 150 Facebook posts about Pat. People all over loved Pat. Members of ODEC, people around the diocese, people she knew through the Navy or healing ministry have written notes on Facebook. I’ve seen notes from bishops, priests and deacons. I’ve gotten emails from past rectors and people who went to seminary from ODEC. One said Pat was the only person who sent her a letter every single week for 3 years while she was in school. For me and all the assistant clergy we’ve had over the past 12 years, working with Pat has been like getting one more seminary class.

I’ve gotten notes from college students and “20 somethings” who knew she cared and she became a mentor. Many knew her through her work in Outreach, others from Cursillo, or Order of St. Luke. She was the Diocesan Chair of Altar Guild for decades. This morning at Men’s Breakfast we scuttled our scheduled program and talked about our own experiences of Pat. Most everyone had some funny story about Pat keeping us in line, or kicking us out of the line, or teaching us how to jump places in line! We remembered that for years she ran the Oyster Roast. Even up to last year when she was a bit hobbled, she still ran the oyster tables out back. Several of our men had been kicked off the oyster shucking table by Pat, or at least demoted from the ‘expert’ table where the oysters to be served on the half-shell were shucked. Pat insisted things be done right and proper, and not only with the altar linens. You might accidentally tear up one oyster - but she made sure you didn’t get two of them!

What we learned if we had the courage to hang with Pat was that she was one of the most loving persons possible. She was generous with everything she owned. She was most generous with her love. One guy observed accurately that Pat was personally doing so much ministry at ODEC that it will take at least 4 or 5 people to replace her. I can tell you that no 4 or 5 of us will manage. She is truly one of a kind (and some days she and I would agree, ‘thank God there is only one’). There is no replacement for the joy and love she brought into our lives. Thanks be to God for Pat Wilson. On June 3 at 3:00pm we will gather as a community to give thanks the way Pat knew best - with the best prayers, music and fellowship. This Sunday, all of us will be invited to follow the dismissal with Pat’s “Go God!”

From our Assistant Rector

Feet to Faith. If you've been listening to me at all in the past month, I'm sure you've heard me say it. It's is our Easter motif this year, brought to you by the Christian Formation Commission and put into action by the Adult Formation Team and our Children's Sunday School Teachers by way of Rebecca Barrio.

It's a great image, isn't it? Feet to faith. I picture this ethereal, cloud-like blob floating around, hovering over people but not able to really do anything until - BAM - it grows some feet! And off it goes, running around, spreading joy and love and comfort all over the place. Maybe that's silly but hey, it's what I've got.

What are we, after all, if we don't put our faith into action? If we don't find ways to practice all we believe, learn, and pray in church on Sundays? We've got to connect our feet to our faith. And one good way to do that is by building a Rule of Life.

Growing A Rule of Life: Our Relationship with God, Self, Others, and Creation. That's our Wednesday Night Program series that carries us through to summer. By the end of the series, you'll have the tools you need to create your own rule of life. What is that, you might ask? Come on Wednesdays to learn more in detail, but in brief a rule of life is simply a guide to help you live a full, complete, God-centered life. Breaking the rule into these four sections helps to focus it, but truly your rule can be whatever you need it to be. It's a list of sorts, with guidelines you commit to follow in order to be formed and nurtured as a created child of God. No one's rule looks exactly alike, because none of us are exactly alike. And your rule will likely change with time, just as you change. But if you join us on Wednesday nights, you'll gather the tools you need to give it a try, a few different ideas each week so that by the end of the series you'll have your rule before you. We are creatures of habit— structure and guidelines, particularly ones that are customized for our own unique needs, help us to grow and be centered, to open ourselves more fully to the world around us.

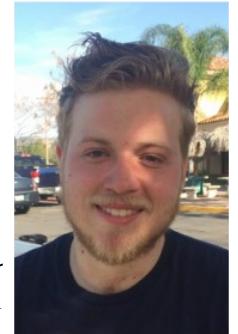

It can be overwhelming to do all of this by yourself, so don't. Join your church community in the endeavor, get support from the people around you, and together we can give our faith feet that will run marathons.

From Our Youth Minister

Hello Everyone,

It is crazy to me to think that my time here at Old Donation is at a close. When Elizabeth and I showed up here almost 3 years ago, you showed us such warmth, love, and kindness, that we couldn't help but instantly fall in love with this parish. We were strangers in Virginia Beach, with no family, friends, or even acquaintances to be found. You took us in, you made us a part of the family, and made our time here transformative for both of us. You took two non-traditionalists (a Baptist and a non-denominational) and made us into Episcopalians, and we never plan to go back. We have grown more and more in love with the traditions and culture of the Episcopal Church.

Throughout our time here at Old Donation, we have had the pleasure of ministering to the youth of this church. Each of the youth whom we have had the opportunity to work with has blessed us in many ways. Seeing the sincerity, humor, worries, concerns, fears, and hopes of these youth has allowed us the chance to reflect on our own lives, and see the areas where we were able to grow. I know that we will greatly miss this parish, and we will especially miss the smiling faces of the youth of Old Donation. They have brought us such joy, and have stolen a part of our hearts.

I am both excited and sad as I look towards the next leg of life's journey, and sad because I will greatly miss all of you, but excited because of the great opportunities that lie before me. I have heard so many good things about Seattle, and I look forward to finally experiencing it myself. I feel relief knowing that we will have a church family already waiting in Seattle, I just have to find that Episcopal shield.

Before things come to a close, however, we still have some great things planned for EYC. Make sure to check the center pages of the Bell Ringer to keep up to date with all of the information about activities/events that are upcoming. Important things to mark on your calendar are: Knockerbball, the Golf Tournament, and the Night Watch program. All the information you need about them can be found in the middle pages of the Bell Ringer, and as always, you can contact me with any questions or concerns.

God Bless,

AJ Lambert

Thank you! Thank you!

To all who did special service this month... For all the members who made our Holy Week so meaningful and Easter celebration so wonderful. It is impossible to name all of you who were part, because there were over 150 of us who had active participant roles in one aspect or another. But I have to recognize several like the following: Melissa Waide, Ann Butler, George Butler and Barbette Timperlake all offered special meditations during Holy Week services. Jeannie DeDominick and her violin work on Easter Day. The Altar Guild, Flower Guild, lay ministers reading and serving chalice, acolytes and Eucharistic Visitors who made sure that worship was beautiful and effective. Our choir and Gathering Band and the Random Acts who led our worship with joy, beauty, and energy, while clearly FULL of the Holy Spirit. For Fr. Fred who took a step in faith and used his creative gifts to fashion some new looks at worship for Holy Week. For the office staff which produced bulletins and assorted worship tools for 25 services in the 8 day rotation between Palm Sunday and Easter Day. Our Easter attendance was again almost 800 for the Easter Vigil and Sunday schedule. For all the support staff and accounting staff to count contributions and account for all of it...one rarely thinks about how much has to go on to support a big effort like it is every year! Thanks are due to Jim Pernini and his Thursday morning men's study group for a really good "Men's Night Out" last Thursday. We had somewhere between 35 and 40 men come out for a night of good food and drink and an interesting speaker. Jim Kohm related baseball and Christianity and then told stories about his work experiences as an agent for professional baseball players. Thanks to our Altar Guild members who have been doing double duty this month to cover the loss of our leader, Pat Wilson. JoAnn Bach and Janet Forbes have been the go-to leaders to keep us on task, communicating needs and special instructions. And every member of the Guild has done more than normal to fill in the voids. THANKS for them especially! We are blessed with a very strong and faithful group. Holy Week is the busiest time of the year anyway, but added to this have been several large funerals and now weddings start again. So they have been much needed and they've responded. THANKS to those who have responded to our calls for help for Office Angels and drivers for doctor appointments. These are so important to the life of the community and to the staff. We can still use some more drivers and a couple bus drivers so pray and answer! Carol Gurioli and Ashley Urquidi who have been helping coordinate for tomorrow night's Art Auction Fundraiser for Day School Scholarships. Janet Brown and her Day School Commission are doing great work to make this a fun night. We hope you all show up: THIS Friday night, May 5, to enjoy.

Youth Ministry

This month concludes almost 3 years of wonderful ministry from AJ Lambert, with assistance from his wife, Elizabeth. They are departing for new adventures in life now that both have gotten their graduate degrees from Regent University. Elizabeth will have her last Sunday with us this weekend, after missing most of the last couple months for an incredibly busy last semester. AJ will finish up with the last regular EYC session of the school year on May 21 (the same day we end Sunday School programs for a summer break). They have been true blessings to our parish, bringing new energy and ideas and truly caring about our young people. They've taken trips and challenged and taught and shared. In the process, they've built good relationships. I give thanks and pray for them as they leave.

We have been advertising in the local and diocesan news for people who might be good candidates for the open position with hopes that we will have someone in the role this summer. Regardless of when we have someone for the Youth Minister position, we will have a fun, full schedule of events and activities for the summer. Our normal pattern is to have a couple times per month for our youth to get together, primarily for building friendships, some fun, and sometimes some service projects. I need some of you to volunteer to help me with chaperoning some of those activities, so send me a note to tell me what you might be able to do and when. In the meantime, say your prayers that the right person will be raised up who can help us continue to grow and develop this important part of our ministry. We are on a steady program for the past 7 years of increasingly building a stronger program. God has been very good in providing just what we need and I am hopeful for the next period to be the same way.

Design Team

The newly formed Building & Facilities Planning Commission (aka “Design Team) met twice in April and has been in contact with Glavé and Homes (G&H), the architectural firm that provided the concept drawings that were briefed to the congregation last fall. G&H will be developing the next stage of a Master Plan for the portion of our needs that can be accomplished with the funds we have available.

Clearly we won’t be able to do all that last year’s Master Plan includes, but we know we can do a lot. The full plan included $5.7M worth of building and renovation. The vestry set priorities for what should be part of this first stage. These will enable G&H to design spaces to satisfy as many of our needs as we can with less money. Fortunately we also accomplished some of the highest priorities last Summer with improvements and renovations to the Day School space. And work continues on our plan to repair and upgrade the Church proper, preserving our historic building.

The vestry established the following remaining priorities: 1) a new worship space (and associated support space); 2) welcoming and functional Narthex with an associated Nursery; 3) additional meeting space/library/adult Sunday school rooms (all to be dual use); 4) additional office/clerical space; 5) upgrades to modernize and expand the kitchen; 6) Additional spaces and rooms for the Day School; and 7) new and added space for youth ministry.

The capital campaign and funds accumulated for building total $3.1M. The vestry asked the Design Team to develop a plan that uses that $3.1M most effectively and to produce two alternatives. We would want to know how much more of our plan could be accomplished with an additional $500K and $1M. That range of plans will help the vestry assure we are not being penny foolish about our spending and building. It is also possible that some extra gifts and pledges will come over the next few years to make more of our plans happen. We will be hearing early this month about how long it will take to develop these concepts.

The vestry asked the Design Team to work with the architects with an openness to any new adaptations or approaches to the Master Plan which might do our work more effectively. We want to maintain the principles which made the initial Master Plan so appealing - that of maintaining the primacy of the church building, of providing as much of the space that we need as possible, and assuring that the campus feel and look still has the sense of who we are. While doing those things, we may find that a year of working on the Capital Campaign and letting the ideas marinate in our imagination might provide some completely new ideas. We have added a couple new members to the Team this month. Julie Sterzing and Courtney Pope have joined the effort to broaden the effort. We have a very good mix now to represent the parish’s diversity of ages, worship services and understanding of needs.

Keep us in your prayers!

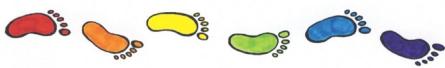

~John Sherman

Graduates!

This is the season for graduations of all sorts. As usual, we are accumulating lists of graduations for high school, college and post-graduate degrees to be published in June Bell Ringer. Those lists come from YOU. Our memories are too feeble and filled with other things to remember. SO, if you know of a graduate, please email their name to Gretchen, our Parish Administrator, with the school and degree information. If you tell Fr. Bob, he will forget! Ashley and Fred MIGHT remember, but don’t count on it. If you don’t send it in, we cannot tell folks how proud we are of them. Thanks!

Lay Eucharistic Visitor Ministry

A Eucharistic Visitor is a lay person authorized to take the Consecrated Elements in a timely manner following a Celebration of Holy Eucharist to members of the congregation who, by reason of illness or infirmity, were unable to be present at the Celebration.

The Congregational Care Commission provides training for LEVs, usually an hour in length. Later they are taken out two times with another LEV to witness the visit in action. You do not have to be a Chalice or have had any other experience. You do need a desire to help others and a willing heart. You can select the Sunday best suited for your schedule and you will always be given a recipient who would like very much for you to visit them.

Old Donation has a very strong history of Eucharistic Visitors. We encourage you to join us in this wonderful ministry. Point of contact is Keren Pernini at 499-9885 or Pernini@cox.net.

The training date is Wednesday, May 16 at 3:30pm in the Library. Please consider this wonderful ministry and let me know if you want to join us.

~ Keren Pernini

Paws, Prayers and Praise

Eucharist is May 7th at 5pm in the church. This is a great opportunity to bring a guest, furry or otherwise, who might not attend a regular Sunday service!

Newcomer's Dinner!

We will have a newcomer's dinner on May 21st at 5:30pm. This dinner is for anyone who has begun attending within the last year. It's also for returning members, so that our clergy can get to know you better. If you would like to attend, please contact Judy Kuhns 757-343-6740

If you believe "do unto others" is a rule to live by, then do others a favor: get an ODEC name tag. We blame not those with poor penmanship, nor those with poor eyesight, but we do blame those who sin by not getting a name tag. Email Gretchen to order one! $8.70 each

Yellow Pages for Parishioners

Sometimes we need to find someone who can do some legal or electrical work for us but prefer to hire someone within the parish when possible. That is exactly what the ODEC Yellow Pages is for: to list various services and products offered by people in our parish family. If you want to list your service or company, just write up 4-5 lines with all the pertinent information that you'd like me to include, and send it to me. Because I hope to get this up and running and available as soon as possible, please get your information to me by the 15th of May. No box ads, please, just 4-5 lines of print.

“FEED MY SHEEP” - John 21:15-16

A prayer of Thanksgiving was said for you at nine different family meals on Saturday April 1. There was happy chatter from at least eleven children as they cheerfully devoured their beans and rice. Can you feel their joy as these nutrients refreshed their bodies and souls?

The first Saturday of every month the doors of the church open from 9-11am to distribute packages of Beans and Rice to anyone that arrives. The Rev. Drew Foisie developed this Outreach Ministry during his pastoral care. Parishioner Beth Markham was an original volunteer recruited by Fr. Drew. She has nurtured this Outreach Mission Beans and Rice program since Fr. Drew left in July 2014. Beans and rice are purchased by Beth at a restaurant supply company.

Parishioner Cindy Paré was on duty April 1, distributing 45 pounds of white rice and 30 pounds of beans. Three pounds of rice and two pounds of beans are packaged in Ziploc bags.

Eduardo was the first visitor on 1 April. He has two children and was known to Cindy from a prior visit. He noted the large new sign on the outer door, made by parishioner Martha Wilson, as with a prior visit he did not know where to go. The second male visitor asked for two bags for himself and his ill father. The third and fourth women visitors came together, having seen the Beans and Rice sign by the side of the road. Another woman, Angela, said her VB social service worker had given her a flyer. Another women, Eunice, had seen the Beans and Rice flyer at the library. Each visitor expressed their gratitude. Cindy said there have been occasions when no one came and the highest number was 25 visitors. Today there were seven visitors. Sandra was the last visitor just before 11 o'clock. She asked for three bags, for herself, her daughter, and a neighbor. She had seen the Beans & Rice sign as she was on her way to the doctor's clinic across the street.

This year the Old Donation Endowment Fund provides $97,200 to the ODEC General Operating Budget. Your generous bequests and the estate gifts already received from sixteen members of the Legacy Society of 1637 are part of why we can do ministries like Beans & Rice.

Everyone has something to share. Whether a lot, or a little, gifts from an estate plan can continue supporting Old Donation Episcopal Church for years to come. ## Women's Kairos # 43

May 6th-9th

It's Kairos time again, and this time it is for the women at the correctional facility in Goochland. Even as I prepare to go in next week, how do I thank this body of believers enough?

My Old Donation brothers and sisters in Christ, your untiring support is what helps float the boat and puts wind in the sails of these weekends. Wow! Not only I, and the team with which I serve, but the 24 women who will be blessed by God on this weekend shout, “THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!” You are truly the hands and feet of Christ and I am humbled to represent you on this journey. I leave with a generous monetary contribution of $1,000 made possible by our outreach committee and your hard work, a full plastic bin of freshly baked cookies (thanks, bakers), precious agape hand-crafted by our children (thank you, wee ones), and most importantly the covering of your prayers (thank you, warriors)!!! Without your prayers, our time inside would be but an empty shell waiting to be crushed. So again, THANK YOU! This is the link for the online prayer vigil sign up, or hand sign the one on the parish hall table.

“I was hungry and you fed me... I was naked and you clothed me... I was in chains and you set me free! Thanks be to God...” Matthew 25:35-36

Also, check out this YouTube video and watch Kairos grads share their story in sign!

Blessings in His Name and for His Sake,

~ Frankie Ring
