

JOHN O'HURLEY

(November 1, 2017) – Award-winning actor John O’Hurley has catapulted into one of television’s busiest and most versatile actor and show host, Broadway star, advertising hero, as well as being a New York Times best-selling author and Billboard chart-topping composer.

Best-known for his role as "J. Peterman" on Seinfeld, John won a Screen Actors Guild Award for his work on the sitcom, which is now the #1 syndicated show in the world and seen in 85 countries. It was O’Hurley’s unique portrayal of the wry and witty “J. Peterman” that led to dozens of advertising campaigns, earning him multiple advertising and marketing industry awards.

He captured America’s heart with his turn on Season 1 of Dancing with the Stars, where he officially won the ABC series with the highly contested “Dance Off,” and was named one of People Magazine’s, “Sexiest Men Alive.”

O’Hurley is now the regular host of NBC Sports’ highest rated annual show, The National Dog Show, a Thanksgiving tradition to 22 million viewers since 2002. He was also host of the long-time popular game shows Family Feud and To Tell The Truth. One of the most recognizable voices in entertainment, he is the voice of many animated characters, including "King Neptune" on SpongeBob SquarePants and the "Mayor" on Disney's hit, Phineas and Ferb.

On Broadway and on stages across the country, he is best known for his many performances as "King Arthur" in Monty Python's Spamalot and his continuing portrayal of slick lawyer "Billy Flynn" in the Broadway legend, Chicago.

As a composer and pianist, both of his albums Secrets from the Lake and Peace of Our Minds have reached the Billboard charts.

His unusual versatility as both entertainer and businessman continues to be the focus of many features in magazines like Business Week and Time. In addition, life imitates art for him as John is now the business partner in the J. Peterman Company with the real John Peterman.

In 2012, he was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in recognition of his accomplishments in the Arts and Philanthropy.

John lives in Beverly Hills with his wife Lisa and their son, William.
