2017-18 Theme: Know God

May Theme Verse:

May 16, 2018

O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.
Psalm 71:17 ESV

Devotional

Psalm 71:17 extols: "O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds." All families who send their children to Redwood Christian Schools have put them in the most important position on earth: to be taught the truth of Jesus Christ from youth so when they get older they will still proclaim the miraculous and wondrous workings of God in their lives. There is no better time than while a person is young to enrich his/her understanding of Christ and the place the Scriptures have in their lives. There is no better place to do that than a Christian school committed to the purposes and plans of God.

In Christ, Curt Russell,
Director of Instructional Development
