2017-18 Theme: Know God

December Theme Verse:

December 13, 2017

And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know Him who is true; And we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. 1 John 5:20

Devotional

1 John 5:20 reads: "And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life." This passage is very reassuring. That we now know that the Son of God has come and He has given us true understanding. That no matter how we try, our understanding is never enough. We need the mind of Christ. This passage also defines Jesus Christ as the Son of God. There is no equivocation about this point. And that by knowing the truth about Jesus Christ, we can be confident that He is the true God who maintains the power of eternal life. Your family, your neighbors, your best friend... or dare I say the people you would hope to never see again, may not know the reassuring truth that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Today is a great day to model Christ for them and let them know the good news of Jesus which provides the well spring of eternal life.

Mr. Hearne's Recommended Resources:

In Christian circles we often hear that the Christmas season isn't about giving presents and although this is correct when it comes to our materialistic culture, it is technically incorrect theology. Jesus, God's own son, is the ultimate gift that God gave to His creation. At Christmas we are celebrating the greatest gift that we have or ever will be given, Jesus Christ. Therefore, my first recommended resource is a listing of books that can help teach children of all ages about the true meaning of Christmas, "Christmas Books for Kids." My second recommended resource is a listing of "Christmas Activities" that we can do with our children to help them find Jesus during the Christmas season. As always, the third resources is the "Axis Cultural Translator" to help you stay current regarding American culture.
