2017-18 Theme: Know God

January Theme Verse:

January 3, 2018

But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. –John 14:26

Devotional

“But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you” (John 14:26). While sharing the Passover meal with His closest earthly friends, Jesus states He will be departing soon. His disciples seem startled and confused. A night of remembrance and a time of commemorating a great historical and national event has suddenly taken an ominous turn. Only Jesus knows what lies in front of Him. In just a few short hours, the Son of God will not only face a horrific death on a cross, but He will take upon Himself the sin of all mankind and pay the price that is required by a loving, yet holy, God. The intimate fellowship He has known for eternity past with God the Father will soon be broken. He will be all alone. Yet during this uncertain time, Jesus sets aside His cares in order to provide help for those He loves. He knows His disciples will face an unimaginable time of fear, uncertainty, and hardship in the days to come. Acting as a loving shepherd caring for His flock, He promises to them the coming of the Holy Spirit (the Helper). This Helper will be their teacher and guide to bring comfort and understanding to their unassured minds in the hard days to come. What a comfort to know God loves us so much that He will never leave us or forsake us! He understands the difficulties we face in this life, and He promises us, as He did to his disciples, to care for us always and give us hope and understanding during the storms we face through the gracious work of His Holy Spirit.

The new year has arrived and with it comes great possibility. 2018 has the potential to be the best year ever. It's up to those of us alive today to make this happen. One of the ways we can work toward making 2018 the best year ever is to help our children develop the personality traits of generosity and gratitude. My first recommended resource is, "Tips for Raising Generous Kids," and the second one is, "10 Tips for Raising Grateful Kids." As always the third is the Axis, "Cultural Translator."
