Devotional Thought:

Holy living is God’s calling on the lives of every Christian. The Scriptures are where we find how God wants the believer to live, act, and think. Approval by God is given to us through the gift of grace Jesus provided for us on the Cross. But let’s not cheapen that grace by living a life displeasing to God. Instead, we are to work hard, be diligent in our thoughts, careful in our actions, and judicious with our words. If we do this, we will not shame God, or ourselves, and can boldly model Christ as we follow His desires for us. If we handle the Word of truth with purpose and seriousness, we will truly be a workman approved.

In Christ, Curt Russell, Director of Instructional Development

“Fabulous Five” As Reported by RCS Teachers:

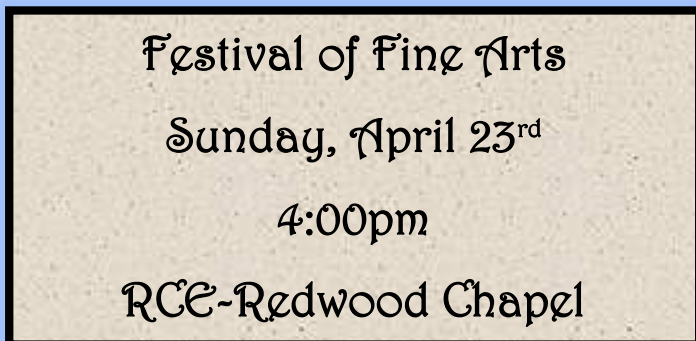

1. Mrs. Francis reports, “We are reading through the book, ‘Island of the Blue Dolphins.’ The students are enjoying learning about the story of Karan, based on a real Native American Indian. They are learning about how the Native American Indians lived.”
2. Mrs. Vanegas reports, “Students in 3V worked hard learning about equivalent fractions. We used dice to roll a fraction. Once they had the fraction, the students multiplied both the numerator and denominator with the same number to get an equivalent fraction.”
3. Mr. Edington reports, “My international students have been doing a very good job on the various speeches we have been working on. I’m very proud of them for the amount of effort they are putting forth.”
4. Mr. Blatchford reports, “Biology class has become personal! We are studying the inner workings of our very own bodies. From the digestive system to the skeleton, and from the muscular system to the brain, we can see that God’s masterful design is clearly seen every time we look in the mirror.”
5. Mrs. Magee reports, “Enjoying the excitement of the seniors who have been accepted at the university of their choice and their future is becoming a reality.”
