Devotional Thought:

Psalm 63:1, "O God, You are my God; I shall seek You earnestly; My soul thirsts for You, my flesh yearns for You, In a dry and weary land where there is no water." This opening verse to Psalm 63 provides an analogy for how much David loves God. In it he expresses an authentic and genuine desire for God's presence while facing serious threats against him. Imagine what purified water does for one who is parched by the beating sun and desert winds; in the same way, David's deep desire for God's presence was his "purified water" while seeking refuge during a coup d'état that chased him from his palace into a hiding place in the wilderness. David did not seek to battle his haters, although he had the resources and ability to do so; instead he chose to seek the presence of God in his life. Why? Because he chose to love God with all his soul!

In Christ, Mr. Castaneda, MSHS Assistant Principal

“Fabulous Five” As Reported By RCS Teachers:

1. Mrs. Benefiel, Mrs. Marcus, Mrs. Haserot, and Mr. Anderson report: Harvest Banquet was amazing. What a great time of students, families and staff joining together to be thankful to God, and to enjoy each other! Click Here
2. Mr. Summers reports: After about one year of studying at Redwood, an international student more than doubled her score on the DRP reading test!
3. Mr. Holmlund reports: My students did a great job at recreating a cell with... FOOD!
4. Mr. Hendren reports: The election gave me a great opportunity to talk to the kids about democracy and socialism versus capitalism and it landed right in the section about the developments of those topics in the industrial revolution. As always when you can tie something in to today, the kids get a lot more into it, and they did. It was really fun.
5. Mrs. Conley reports: I was encouraged when asking my students to write things about people for whom they were thankful. They started with seven turkey feathers each and quickly wanted more! Click Here
