2017-18 Theme: Know God

March Theme Verse:

March 7, 2018

Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me.
And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, And I will love him and manifest myself to him. –John 14:21 ESV

Devotional

John 14:21 reads, "Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." This verse contains two timeless truths regarding the Christian life. First, one of the ways we show our love to God is by keeping His commandments. Second, by keeping God's commandments, in return, Jesus provides a manifestation, a deep unveiling or revelation of something new that cannot have been known before. By loving God, Jesus manifests Himself into our lives, and we know Him in ways that non-believers just cannot understand. We are truly able to know His person, His nature, and His goodness.

In Christ, Al Hearne II, Superintendent

Mr. Hearne's Recommended Resources:

Glenn Schultz, a retired Christian school superintendent, states, "Children are God's homework for parents." As parents we naturally want what is best for our children. We naturally want to set them up on the road for success. The goal isn't success today, it's for our children to be successful adults, people of character, serving God, and providing for their own families. My first two resources this week are for fathers, and they both come from Focus on the Family. First, for dads of daughters, here is an excellent transcript of a radio broadcast, "Being Your Daughter's Hero". It discusses how daughters can grow through interactions with their dads. Second, for dads of sons, here is a two-part podcast: "Raising Sons to Be Honorable Men". It discusses how sons need for their dads to help them define character traits with positive, real life examples. As always, the third resource is the Axis "Cultural Translator".

Fabulous Learning

Colonial Tales. After journeying the ocean unknown, building relationships with native people, farming, hunting, finishing, sickness, and adventures, 5th graders have expanded their colonies and are now telling of their tales. They documented their experiences through journal entries and there's no doubt they all believe colonial life was rough! –Mrs. Wilson CLICK HERE

Spanish Country Reports. Using creativity and technology, Mrs. Sanchez's Middle School Spanish students created outstanding PPTs on a selected Spanish country. –Mrs. Sanchez CLICK HERE

Army Simulator. Miss Sierra's physics classes spent time with the army in the Army Mission Simulator Big Rig. –Miss Sierra CLICK HERE

Toothpicks and Marshmallows. Using toothpicks and marshmallows, Mrs. Sommers' 3rd graders had fun constructing rectangular prisms and learning the parts: faces, edges and vertices. –Mrs. Sommers CLICK HERE

Storm Research. Both second grade classes used age-appropriate search engines created by Google to research a weather condition for their "Storm Project." Students researched and took notes to help them create their projects. Next week, Mrs. Haserot's students will present their posters in small groups! –Mrs. Haserot CLICK HERE
