

Come to the library and check these and many others out!

Audio Books: (good for car trips)

Flags Of Our Fathers by James Bradley whose father was one of the six flag raisers on Iwo Jima. He tells the true story of the immortal photograph that lifted the heart and spirit of a nation at war in 1945 and how it affected these men and the country.

Dewey: The Small-Town Library Cat Who Touched The World. True account of Dewey who was found in the library book return bin by librarian Vicki Myron. He immediately won the heart of Spencer, Iowa and lived the next 19 years in the library charming the patrons with his enthusiasm, warmth and sense about who needed him most.

Anne Of Green Gables by L.M. Montgomery written in 1908 is a book for all ages. Anne Shirley, an 11 year-old orphan, is mistakenly sent to Matthew and Marilla Cuthbert, who intended to adopt a boy to help them on the farm on Prince Edward Island. The story tells how Anne makes her way into the hearts of the Cuthberts, in the school and within the town. A classic story!

Books:

Chicken Soup For The Teen-age Soul: the Real Deal by Jack Canfield

Stories about cliques, classes, clubs and more that are written by real teens. They are about the bizarre, embarrassing and sometimes triumphant things that really happened to them. Includes weird facts, cool graphics, fun advice and quizzes to help you figure out who you are and what you're up to.

Pursued By Grace by Jim Klobuchar is the story of Jim's spiritual journey and recovery through doubt, alcoholism, divorce, and a serious illness to a relationship with God.

Ordinary Grace by William Kent Krueger is a coming of age novel told from Frank's perspective 40 years later.

It is about a boy on the edge of his young manhood, trying to understand a world that seems to be falling apart around him. It is about discovering the terrible price of wisdom and the enduring grace of God.

Lost And Found by Carolyn Parkhurst is a bittersweet, wry and wonderful look at where we find honesty in our relationships, our hearts, and ourselves.

A Boy From C-11: Case #9164 by Harvey Ronglien is an honest, heart-wrenching account of the author's struggles to overcome his difficult childhood in the Minnesota State Public School for Dependent and Neglected Children in Owatonna, MN. As an adult, he worked as a proactive and respected historian to ensure that the children of the State School will not be forgotten as can be seen in the orphanage museum today.