Exceptional & Caring Staff

Temple Sinai Preschool teachers strive to foster in each child a love for learning. They are experienced, highly trained professionals in the field of early childhood education. Through staff meetings and continuing education workshops, teachers constantly expand and refine their skills.

Meeting Each Child's Needs

Our teachers possess exceptionally warm-hearted personalities that are reflected in the special relationships they form with each child. They are responsive to every child's individual needs and attentive to their special interests. Our staff works to collaborate with the children and their families to create an environment that will meet the needs of all of our students.
