THANK YOU FROM FR. CYRIAC

"There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." (Ecclesiastes 3: 1) Yes, this is a season to rejoice and be glad in the Lord for He has worked wonders in our life. It is a season for me to express my thanks and praise God for my life, service and ministry here at the Shrine for the past 11 years. My heart is full of gratitude for the many opportunities I received in serving the community and the people of God during these years. I am grateful to La Salette community for trusting in me and entrusting various responsibilities from retreat Center to the Shrine.

Although I was very apprehensive about retreat ministry in the beginning, I truly enjoyed organizing and conducting various retreats to youth, adults and religious. I am indeed grateful for the Master's degree program that I finished at Boston College which gave me tremendous confidence, understanding and depth in pastoral ministry. I loved the ministry of spiritual direction and accompanying them in their spiritual journey. I have also loved preaching retreats in different parishes.

What a privilege it has been to get to know you more personally and share my life and ministry with you over the years! There has been lots of challenges especially engaging in a long legal battle with the City of Attleboro for tax abatement and finally sustaining the tax exemption privilege for La Salette Shrine. I give thanks to God for the many wonderful men and women in my community as well as the staff who supported, encouraged, and collaborated in all that transpired here at the Shrine. I realize that I am not called to be 'successful but to be faithful' in the words of St. Theresa of Calcutta. My apologies to those I may have offended in anyway. In the next chapter of my life, I am called to be a Pastor at St. Oliver Plunkett parish in Snellville, GA beginning May 30, 2017. I ask you to please keep me in your prayers as I take on this new ministry in a totally unfamiliar shore. Once again I offer my big Thank You to all! May Mary our Mother watch over us all.

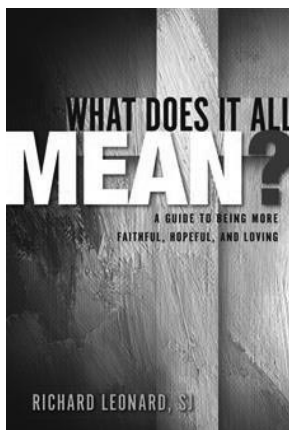

-Fr. Cyriac Mattathilanickal

BOOK OF THE MONTH

What Does it All Mean?

A Guide to Being More
Faithful, Hopeful and Loving
By: Richard Leonard SJ

What Does It All Mean? brings together into one volume three previous works on belief and its challenges: Where the Hell Is God?, Why Bother Praying?, and What Are We Doing on Earth for Christ's Sake? This work revises, restructures, edits, augments, and develops the early works into a single coherent case for belief. It does not shy away from the biggest challenges to faith inside and outside of the Church, but outlines a contemporary and accessible response to the issues that confront and sometimes confound believers today. It has an index for easy and quick reference.

Available in our bookstore.

THE DICK DELISLE MEMORIAL GARDEN

Many of us who knew Fr. Dick Delisle know he loved both gardening and the poor. One fitting memorial to him will be to bring those loves together.

We are establishing a small garden in his memory, which will provide fresh vegetables to our Monday Soup Kitchen.

We will need people to help prepare the garden bed, plant, weed, water and then harvest. We are also looking for people to be the coordinators of the volunteer team.

If you wish to help leave a note for Judy Medeiros at the Reception Desk with your name, phone number and email address (if you have one.)

We hope to begin at the end of May.

Make Your Weekly Offering Online

Although not everyone buys things online many people do. For those of you who do, we will offer 'online giving' for your regular donation. This amount will be put on your charge card or taken right from your bank account like other automated giving.
