

San Diego Professional Palliative Care Conference

FRIDAY JUNE 23, 2017

Palliative Care: A Cloak of Many Colors

California State University San Marcos

8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Join us for our second annual conference on the art and practice of Palliative Care. Last year, attendees from all clinical disciplines benefited from rich learning, networking, and action plan development. On the evaluations, 97% of attendees said they would be back again this year!

This year, our theme is an exploration of the diversity of Palliative Care:

Stitching the Cloak

Integrating Advance Care Planning and Palliative Care across the healthcare continuum, building programs, measuring outcomes

Tailoring the Cloak

Adapting practice to meet the needs of different communities

Cloak Care Instructions

Updates from the field, including bioethical challenges, topical breakout sessions and best practices

Panel Session

One year later: a look-back at the End-of-Life Option Act

Dr. Thomas J. Chippendale
Memorial Lecturer

Dr. Jessica Zitter, MD, MPH

Dr. Zitter practices Critical Care and Palliative Medicine in Oakland, CA.

Her first book, Extreme Measures: Finding a Better Path to the End of Life, unveils our current public health crisis of overly mechanized dying and offers a vision for a different way forward.

Join Dr. Zitter for a book signing during the afternoon dessert break.

pal·li·a·tive
/pəlē'ādiv, pəlēədiv/

From the Latin word pallium, which means cloak.

Palliative Care cloaks patients in care and comfort.
