

Dear Parent or Guardian,

We know that many students and their families depend on the Internet, whether at school or at home, so they can do homework, search for jobs, access financial or government services and much more. As an educator, I know that having the Internet at home is critical to ensuring that your child can stay connected to online assignments, classmates and teachers.

That is why we want to make sure you to know about a low-cost home Internet service called Internet EssentialsSM from Comcast. If you have at least one child eligible to participate in the National School Lunch Program, your family may qualify.*

Features of Internet Essentials include:

- $9.95 per month + applicable taxes with no term contract or credit checks
- No activation or equipment fees
- In-home WiFi included
- Access to an affordable desktop or laptop computer for just $149.99
- Free in-person and online web classes

Call 855-846-8376 or apply online at InternetEssentials.com. We want all our students to have the opportunity to do their homework at home, and we are excited to tell you about programs like Internet Essentials from Comcast that may be helpful to your family.

Sincerely,
Your school administration

*To qualify for Internet Essentials, your household must be located where Comcast offers Internet service, have not subscribed to Comcast Internet service within the last 90 days and does not have an overdue Comcast bill or unreturned equipment in the past year. Pre-approval for the program is limited to families of students whose schools have a 50% or higher number of students are eligible to participate in the National School Lunch Program. Internet Essentials from Comcast is a program to provide home Internet service for families. It is not a school program, and is not required by your school. Your school is not responsible for Internet Essentials accounts. No school funds were used for this notice.
