(Young Adults for this event are defined as persons 19 – 30 years old at the time of the GYPC)
Information regarding costs may be found at the end of this application and nomination form.

Please use this form to submit your Northeastern Jurisdiction delegate application and nomination for the Global Young People's Convocation 2018. The gathering will be held July 18-22, 2018 at the Indaba Hotel and Conference Centre, Johannesburg, South Africa.

The Global Young People's Convocation (GYPC) is the global event of United Methodist young people. It is held once every four years for the purpose of:

- Celebrating the mission and vitality of young people in the United Methodist Church
- Raising the joys and concerns of young people from the global community
- Developing young people as leaders for effective ministry in local churches and communities of faith
- Highlighting emerging trends in youth and young adult ministry
- Providing a common forum that embraces the global reality of the church.

The GYPC also has a Legislative Forum, which is the venue for proposing and discussing legislation related to issues of concern to young people. For more information check out their website <https://umcyoungpeople.org/the-latest?category=2733>

The NEJ Young Adult Council will be sending 5 voting young adult delegates. To apply please fill out the application and nomination form and return it to the West Virginia Episcopal Office, 900 Washington St., East, Charleston, WV 25301 no later than June 23rd 2018. Please be aware before you apply that the cost of the trip will be between $2,500-$3,500. There will be opportunity to apply for scholarship through the GYPC and information on that process will come out later this summer.
