Prices vary widely, depending on market conditions and the number of stars of the hotel.

To get a competitive price we suggest you go to either www.booking.com and find the hotel you're interested in. Check the price for the room you want and then, instead of booking through either of these sites, contact the hotel directly, and ask for a 10-15% discount.

As all hotels have to pay around 15% commission to these booking engine companies they will usually agree.
