Bonus guidelines

- » *Bonuses are payable under this campaign only after a writing agent has issued a minimum of 20 qualifying plans during the bonus period submission dates. To be a qualifying plan, the sale must consist of one National General Foundation Health plan with at least one supplemental plan (in which case, each plan will count towards the 20-plan threshold). Once a writing agent meets the 20-plan minimum, all such sales (including the sales consisting of the initial 20 plans) will be bonus-eligible as long as such sales satisfy the other bonus eligibility guidelines described herein.
- » Agents can qualify for multiple payouts with multiple bundled combinations; each combination must include a National General Foundation Health plan and at least one supplemental coverage plan.
- » Short Term Medical and Association Memberships are not eligible for the bonus.
- » Policies must be in force for a minimum of four months to qualify for the bonus.
- » For the $100 bonus the NG Foundation Health plan and at least 2 of the supplemental plans must be in force at the end of 4 months.
 - » Example: If you sell a NG Foundation Health with 3 supplemental plans, the NG Foundation Health and at least 2 of the 3 supplemental plans must be in force at the end of 4 months.
- » Bonus payments will be made to the same agent/agency to whom the applicable commissions related to the sales of the NG Foundation Health and supplemental plans will be paid.
- » Agents must be appropriately licensed and appointed with National Health Insurance Company and Time Insurance Company on the date the bonus is paid.
- » Bonuses will be considered taxable income and reported on recipients' FORM 1099-MISC.
- » All usual commission and persistency rules apply.
- » National General reserves the right to cancel, suspend and/or modify the bonus campaign at any time, as well as to make the final decision on all payments.
- » Bonus applies to new National General Foundation Health and supplemental policies submitted between April 1, 2017 and October 31, 2017.
- » At the end of the sales campaign, National General will review all submissions for which bonuses have been paid. Any overpayment will be adjusted accordingly against future commissions at the sole discretion of National General.

*Some restrictions on plan combinations may apply.
