

First Wednesday Men's Lunch

DECEMBER 6 AT NOON

Guest Speaker
Todd Brown

St. Philip's Church Parish House
corner of Church & Cumberland

After attending Presbyterian College and the Darla Moore School of Business (USC), Todd Brown got his start in the banking industry with Bankers Trust of SC in 1985. He has been with PNC Bank since January of 2000, and his primary focus has been establishing and managing commercial relationships.

Todd has served as senior warden, junior warden, vestryman, treasurer, Alpha leader, lay reader, and choir member at St. Michael's Church, and he's now a fairly new member of St. Philip's Church (at least by Charleston standards). One of his passions has been his involvement in men's ministry, and his faith continues to be strengthened through the study and discussion of scripture with other men. He recently answered the call to join the team leading the 8th-grade Sunday school class at St. Philip's, and he thinks teaching hungry teenagers early in the morning may turn out to be his greatest ministry challenge yet.

Todd is a husband and father to a new "blended" family. He and his wife, Courtney, have five children and a son-in-law between the ages of 13 and 24. While there are many challenges and adventures to this family life, Todd and Courtney believe one of their keys to success is Forced Family Fun, which has ranged from game night to redneck golf to spring break adventures.

Five years sober, Todd finds relaxation through exercise, simply being outdoors, or both. He and Courtney also enjoy their Monday evening couples bowling league and weekly lunch date.
