

SPEAKING FRANKLY ABOUT HUMAN SEX-TRAFFICKING

JANUARY 28 & 29, 2017

JOIN THE CONVERSATION.

This is a necessary conversation.
Human Sex-Trafficking is happening in our nation, in our state and in the communities we call home.

SATURDAY CONVERSATION

Saturday, January 28, 2017

10 am - 1 pm

YWCA Hamilton

Registration Required*

Join the conversation on Human Trafficking at the YWCA Hamilton from 10am to 1pm. Hear from national expert, Lisa Williams and local service providers, advocates and law enforcement.

SUNDAY CONVERSATION

Sunday, January 29, 2017

6 pm - 7:30 pm

Bridgewater Church

All are welcomed*

Take the conversation deeper and join with people of all faiths at Bridgewater Church in Fairfield Township to learn more, ask questions, pray and participate in a community candle light vigil.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER, LISA WILLIAMS

Lisa C. Williams is an international heroine in her innovative efforts to counter child sex-trafficking. To date she has directly helped rescue 181 children and young women. The FBI calls her program "one of the most comprehensive, rehabilitative programs for child victims of sex trafficking in the country."

An expert and thought leader, Ms. Williams is a sought after speaker and has spoken all over the country including both the White House and the U.N.

A compelling conversation that you will never forget.

To find out more or to register for this FREE event, visit www.speakingfrankly.community